KERYKEION TAROT

NICOLAAS BATO BLOOT

1. THE REASON

For my Father.

And to show that the 'THINKER' can glue whatever it wants.

The purpose of this tarot is to show how our consciousness of difference [our 6th sense or ratio; normally spoken of as 'thoughts'] is able to combine any given by reality. There is not only one way to conceive reality. I try to show that there is no right or wrong; especially not in a knowledge system as tarot. Since every knowledge system of mankind [alien kind?!] is nothing more than an attempt to explain reality in order to work with it.

After a troubling youth, which cumulated in three suicide attempts and where I remembered claiming to be explained or otherwise why did life create me for, some force did me encounter a man named: 'SASWITHA', Jan Rijks - 1901-1988

(Saswitha - sas = living, witha = water)

This man wrote a book called "Swabhawat, de korte weg tot wijsheid" [by which he actually saved my life!]

A in Dutch written book. The title means: "Swabhawat, the short way towards wisdom".

'Swabhawat' means 'the Self Existing'. The title derived from the Vedic Stanza's of Dzyan*), the Hinduistic book of Genesis.

The book explains how our 'thinking' works. It takes you step by step through a process of exercises [sounds simple, very hard to actually do!]. Along the way you become aware that the right term, for that process in our brains, better should be named 'consciousness of difference'.

*) see Blavatsky's Secret Doctrine

It is the Law of Trinity. It is actually how 'LOICA' works [= logic in Latin; 'loi' in French = law!].

Or even better how the essential Law of Nature per-form.

I am very fortunate that this method has been explained to me first, and all the esoteric knowledge after worth.

It taught me/made me realize that all Gnosis we created/know on this planet is only a result of awareness made manifest in systems/methods.

I see us, humanoids, as a kind of biological robots expressed with 8 senses -measuring instruments- to check out reality as it expresses itself.

(See page vi and xiv and the Juul Wheel in beginning of the pictorial Kerykeion tarot - the foldout plate > page xxx)

When life forms go to sleep -we all do- you could consider that as a 'uploading of experience' into the cosmic [earth] consciousness.

Through which it will adjust reality as seen fit.

Symbolism is -should be- a consensus of knowledge systems, that reveals itself by means of associations, similarities, likenesses and correspondences. Many apparently different religions, myth's and stories show the same deeper meaning and multiple levels of indications. E.g. all these black stripes on a yellowish background is symbolism. There correspondence, of these combinations of black stripes, with a certain pre showed understanding, cause by awareness of difference conventional associations taught and therefore these 'words' trigger a comprehension in you. With pictures same thing.

The broader your gnosis, the more comparisons you can make, the more horizon of awareness looms over.

Actually I don't want to explain you anything about the used symbolism in the tarot (it all depends on your own comprehension).

But because of the 'turning of the cards', I feel some show is needed.

It is my conclusion that the tarot is not made to predict the future. It is a book of knowledge! Only with merely pictures.

I am now understanding it is a book to explain through pictography the stages any being will go through in its development.

Intended for the slaves to teach them letters & numbers, so they [we!] could read [writing came in a later stage] and perform tasks.

The same pictography, depending the goal, can be differently interpret and so being used for a broad ranges of purposes.

Hence the much more pictorial orientated communication systems. That's why symbolism has multiple layers of interpretations.

Unawareness about how the 6th sense functions, causes easily illusions, which results in preconceptions and are then considered being reality.

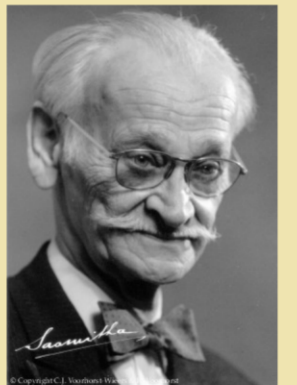

I cannot emphasize enough how we are not aware of the way consciousness is processed. We identify with the observation, forgetting our part in the equation, and then remain with only separation. I named it the 'Identification problem' > it causes all the problems in the world.

Without knowing the law of trinity we will remain captured in duality, we will remain fools.

The word 'Fool' in Dutch is 'De Dwaas', originated in the Sanskrit word 'Dwaita' meaning 'two'[2], hence duality! In Dutch 'dwalen' meaning not knowing where to go - to wander. In French 'Le Mat' -the fool- meaning/signifying -according to my conclusion- being in matter. Matter only visible/noticeable by means of division of the Unity; ergo duality! ;-)

The Thinker is the killer of reality, yet the guardian of unreality. [A quote from Saswitha, included in his book]

The 'Thinker' can 'glue' whatever it wants.

2. THE RE-TURN OF A FRIENDLY CARD

I find it impossible to write down what overcame me.
My whole life is strange and filled with experiences which I can hardly grasp.
Only when it happens to/with you, all you can accept is that they happened, are happening.
Let alone that others 'believe' you.
Truth is impossible to write down.
Only the whole Universe is the truth.
Every attempt to express the truth will remain a part of the truth.
Through the experience I had, I realise now that certain realities are inconceivable for us Humanoids, just because of our state of being.
I experienced a contact with 'other' consciousness 'through time & space'.
Better said: 'without time and space'. Instantaneously it is. Instant pudding! ;-)
True riches are of the understanding kind.

It -he/she/they- showed me it had guided me all my live already and since 9 September 2016 [= 999 !!!] I came to realise this very profoundly.
It -he/she/they- shows itself constantly through every -thing, -human, -animal, -sound, -word, -song, every squeak of matter.
I love it now, sometimes, not to know what to do, because it gives that force the opportunity to make me do, look, hear or go to [a website?!]
somewhere by "coincidence"! I am never alone again. LOL, because now the problem switched into 'never being able to be alone'!
Me, now really aware of its instantaneous omnipresence, was again guided to become aware of certain 'new' key knowledge.

Santos Bonacci and Cullen Smith were the two great inspirations it showed me. [YouTube]
Both, each in their own jaw dropping way, showed me ancient based knowledge [= astrotheology, syncretism and others] and the virtuosity of language. Cullen Smith is really 'lifting the veil'. [= name of his website]
Thanks to Santos, for me the most inspiring and compelling evidence was/is the book named:
'Zodiac and the salts of salvation' [from writers George W. Carey and Inez Eudora Perry] Really, read it. With that knowledge a lot of symbolism -I used- becomes clear.

That made me aware of a complete different interpretation/meaning of the story of Christ in the Bible.
And that it had been changed into a 'one person identification model'.
The original meaning of the word 'Christ' means 'oil' in the Greek language!
It runs through everything and everybody! It's the old name for life force, I think.
The Christ is the Snake, the kundalini, the fire within. And many more references there are.
It is about an anatomic function being in inseparable harmony with celestial electromagnetic events or/and resonances/sine waves/frequencies.
Actually, . . . the whole Universe works this way! The whole universe is a fractal based organism that exists in simultaneosity.
And Lordy Lord, did the ancients know this!

That life force, running through everything, from mineral- through plant- and animal world, up into ourselves.
The mineral world has its oil. [The black stuff out of the earth is not fossil fuel because oil is found many miles more deep than any fossil could ever have lived] Plants have their ethereal oils, animals blood, and humans CSF. [Cerebral Spine Fluid = Christ oil] I bet it goes beyond more levels of expression -or is it: impression?!- , The so called other dimensions.

Not at first though, however slowly but surely, I became aware that, if tempered with one of the most significant stories of mankind, than most likely also with [an] other famous book[s].
At first when I started making the tarot I had no idea what was awaiting me.
Making the first five cards were like the tarot sequence we have all being taught and familiar with: Fool, Magician, High Priestess, Empress, Emperor and High Priest.
And how applicable that epiphany stroke after the High Priest!
With literally help from the 'other' consciousness, [it is so one, it confuses to name it 'another'] which I "hear[d]" in/through/with my mind [6th sense!], I 'saw' how the tarot in a vice verse order -not upside down- , with the Hebrew letters, have a miraculous logical fit.
And, surprise surprise, the tarot showed a friendly message, not one of judgement & doom. The rest followed quickly as a logical consequence.
I became aware of the vice verse consecution of the tarot.
I had to re-turn the cards!

3. ABOUT THE KERYKEION TAROT

When you realise one thing has been rigged you start checking the others.
My 33 years of investigation in knowledge systems showed some funny relations.
And quickly it was evident that making 're-turned' parallels between systems was obvious. So we did some 'effort to combine'.

It ended up in combining:

- SWABHAWAT
- TAROT
- CABBALA
- HEBREW
- CONSTELLATIONS/ ZODIAC/PLANETS
- BIBLE
- RUNE
- ANATOMY
- HINDU [CHAKRAS/YOGA]
- some: ALCHEMY
- some: EGYPTIAN
- some: GREEK
- some: CHINESE
- some: NORSE MYTHOLOGY
- some: EXTRA TERRESTIALS
- and: MYSELF ;-)

To let it all fit, ' ? ' created this 'JUUL WHEEL' →

foldout plate on page xxx

It is thee KEY.

Actually of more significance than my tarot cards! This Juul Wheel shows the complete interaction of the tarot with above -the zodiac- , as well below -the daily, monthly and yearly anatomical cycles of lives. In a manner I have myself not seen before, hence this presentation. Start on the inner circle at 'VIRGO' with first card named "ALPHA".

Follow clockwise the orange, green & violet arrow coloured 'brick road'! ;-) It shows itself.

And how "miraculous" -of course not, it is just an incomprehensible other dimension at work- that this 'Juul Wheel' was finished at 5 to midnight at the dawn of Eastern 2017 - Jewish year 5777! [my life is so full of these kind of events].

NOTE: the time I am writing this -23 of September 2017- the complete tarot is finished in about 9 month time.

The time the planet Jupiter has been in the 'belly' of the constellation 'Virgo'! I knew about it, but just became aware of it last week!

There is more about this date but the opinions are so divided and I cannot 'proof' anything, so modesty is due.

Check it out yourself.)

So finally, after 33 years of search, time was ripe to show what I found/have become aware!

A tarot of my own making really became obvious.

Since my teenage days I 'dreamt' of a "Big Book"! When I started creating this tarot I knew "This is it!".

I wanted it to be based on logical sequences. But as life itself, always exceptions will occur.

To create a clear logic message the making of a separate general key was the next logic outcome.

Therefore, because it is a universal key, on the Juul Wheel every tarot can be fit.

My personal interpretation is given by the cards and the comments about the symbolic meanings.

Kerykeion is the Greek word for 'caduceus', the staff of Hermes/Mercury, the messenger of the Gods.

And it seemed to have been a kind of "multipass" for the messenger.

The messenger could therefore reach any Court.

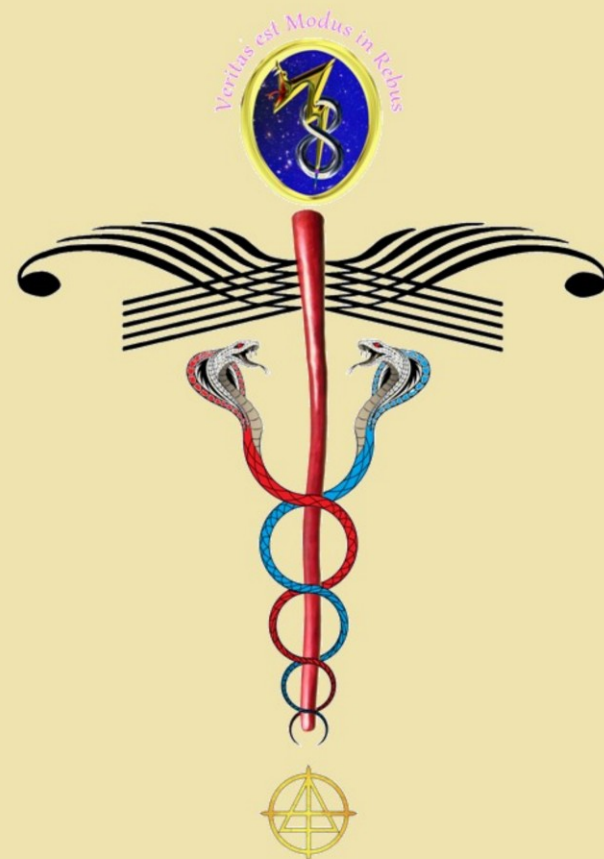

And when you pronounce 'Kerykeion' in plain Dutch it sounds like: "Keer ik Eon", what means "Turn I aeon". LOL!

When realising that resonance/wave patterns/sound are thee ingredient of the Universe I quickly realised that the Caduceus is actually a trumpet to symbolise the wave patterns.

So I wondered: "What is the oldest trumpet in the world?"

"It must be the Didgeridoo from the Ab-origines!"

Therefore I use a Didgeridoo as the rod for my Kerykeion.

I am Gemini myself with an ascendant Gemini! (Born Friday the 13 of June 1958 at 04:06 in Amsterdam, The Netherlands, Europe, Earth)

I always have associated myself with Hermes/Mercury.

I even created a standing clock looking like a Hermes, back in the 90's, with winged helmed -Petasis- and winged sandals -Talaria.

A running clock! :-)

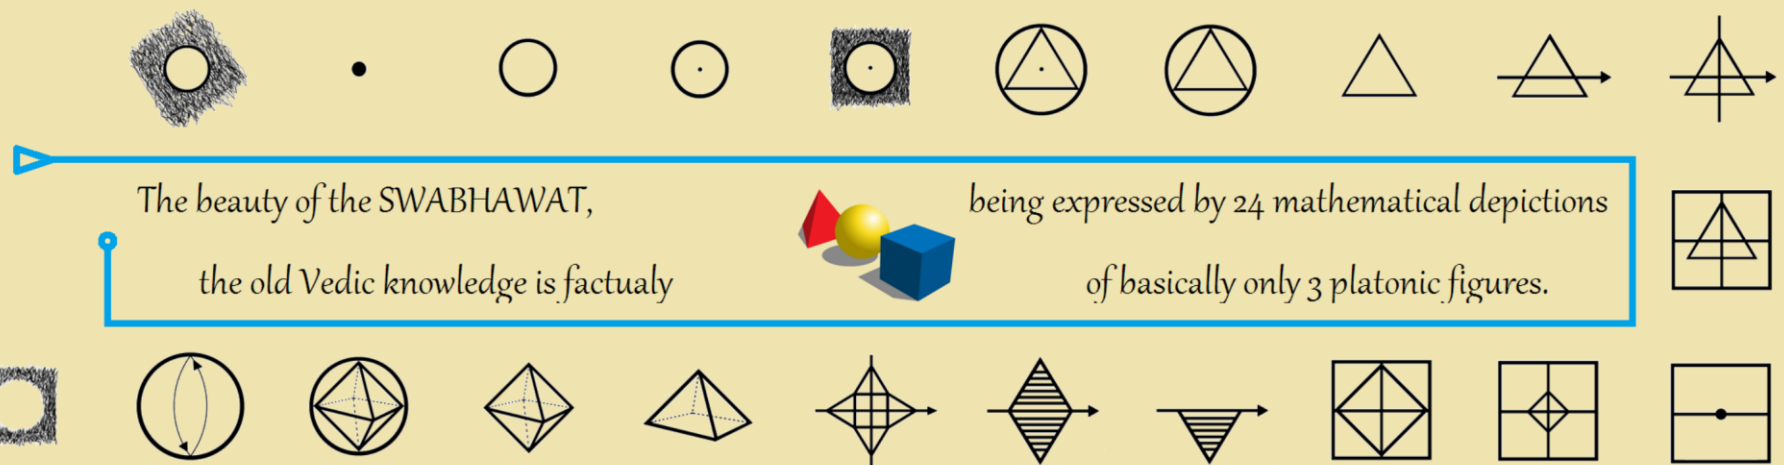

I reasoned that, because in my personal life everything important happens twice and life is like a medal with two sides, I had to make a tarot where both sides show different things yet it is actually about the same comprehension.

You can also consider it to be the representation for the electro and the magnetic, left & right brain, CSF [cerebral spine fluid] > the Christ oil becoming Milk & Honey*), Ida & Pingala of Yoga , the two Serpents on the Kerykeion staff, the two pillars Boaz & Jachin in the Kaballah, etc.

Throughout in the book the left page represents the pure knowledge, cognitive side, and the right page the associative, intuitive side.

Printed on playing cards both sides are -obviously- used.

*) later in de text elaborate explanation is given.

The beauty of the SWABHAWAT,

the old Vedic knowledge is factually being expressed by 24 mathematical depictions of basically only 3 platonic figures.

As you can see, the Swabhawat figures have the first and last depiction of naught. We in the West are not taught to see emptiness as being, nor we see matter as a kind of space. I understanding to be the meaning of -when you buy, almost, any tarot- the two empty cards in the pack of 78. So I added the two voids to my tarot: 80 in all therefore. Or better written like this : ' $\infty \square$ ', the never ending story!

To be able to combine the Swabhawat, Tarot, Hebrew & Runes alphabets they all had to become 24 in number.

I am convinced that the tarot has ancient connections with -and originated in ?- the East, and the Major Arcana had been 24 in origin!

So I shaped, draw and polished my conclusions and acted as a 'Great Maker' myself. ;-) [the sub name I gave to the Magician, card no.23]

> For the Hebrew alphabet I created an 'ALPHA' & 'OMEGA', respectively 1 & 24 (obvious and logical, I reasoned)

> For the Runes -Futhark- I created 6 figures extra, 19 to 24. I applied some Pan theses > phantasy!

> 24 = 3 x 8 I therefore made an '8 fold three times over'. The orange, green & violet coloured arrow 'road' on the Juul Wheel. [page xxx]

{ like a transcending development, like degrees in understanding, and yet they are three times the same thing.	>	- PHYSICAL	- 8 Senses & glands
	>	- EMOTIONAL	- 8 Chakras & locations
	>	- SPIRITUAL	- 8 Yoga disciplines & understanding

> For the Chakras I created the 8th chakra and then realised/remembered that in ancient times the Hindu used an 8th chakra named 'Som'!

I applied 'Will' to it. 'Will' in my eyes is where all 7 other senses are combined expressed; through/with/by your 'HALO'.

More or less a separate sense by itself. The 'sum/som' of it all!

In my understanding is 'Will' [wheel!] the Solar Plexus, located between the 2nd - SVĀDHISTĀNA- and 3rd - MANIPURA- chakra.

> Took the 7 Sins from the Bible and I created an 8th Sin: 'Denial - Truth'.

> The paths on the tree are also reversed. - I climb a tree, I don't descend into it :-) - [see also Chapter 8 & Tree diagram, both page xxii]

> The main colour scheme is by following the light spectrum, so: [see also table on page xiv]

Tree of Life/ Otz Chiim Sephioroth	Yoga Chakras senses	Element	Minor Arcana: Synonym	Court member	Juul Wheel' Development
10. WHITE	?
9. GREY	?
8. BLACK	WILL
7. VIOLET	FEELING
6. INDIGO	RATIO
5. BLUE	HEARING
4. GREEN	SIGHT	WATER	WAVE	MOTHER
3. YELLOW	SMELL	AIR	HELIX	SON

feel free to fill in these 'empty' slots! ;-)

SPIRITUAL

"3x8"

! = 1 & 2 in combination with the colour scheme is one of the exceptions within my 'logic'. Further down in 'my' system you see 'fire' = red always to be named first, yet on the Tree of Life the first is 'Yesod', which is orange.

> Naming the Court cards was done out of simplicity and the logical reference with the TORUS field. FaTHER, moTHER, daughTER and Son instead of broTHER, since the Son/Sun is the reflection of the universal FA THER. [see card no.5 Sun]

We are born in the uterus and we carry our torso around on terra in terrible tormented turmoil > > to speak in those terms. ;-)

> General Alchemical process used in the Court cards: [each phase is also shown next to 'the symbolism used' explanation page xvi to xx]

QUINTESENCE:

Our forefathers [four fathers = 4 elements] know of the clockwork, the rhythms, the cycles leading to Earth its regular -the Mill of- destruction. Passing the Photon Belt. [astronomical name is 'The Golden Nebula']

Every ± 12.068 year > half the astrological 'Great Year' cycle. Over and over again we lose it all.

In numerous texts around the world there is mentioning of these -multiple kinds of- catastrophes.

Losing all knowledge's and sciences and all buildings over and over again. As species very frustrating!!!

So a Master plan was/is created. They placed their awareness/comprehension into a worldwide Grand Story telling fashion. To conserve knowledge in 'easy' to tell stories to ensure it was passed on.

They placed/imbedded key knowledge, among others, in architecture > Pyramids, Stonehenge, Adam's calendar, Göbekli Tepe, and stories > Sumerian, Babylonian, Vedic, Norse, Egyptian, Torah, Bible, Koran, I Tjing, Popul Vuh, fairy tales, myths, sages, nursery rimes and so many, many, many more!

Making sure knowledge would survive until we have developed enough to recognize the 'signs' and we would find out the real meaning/message of it. Hopefully in time to prepare for the next one.

In particular by using our constellations -and thus the Zodiac- as an unchangeable foundation, they kept the 'Gnosis' about the material aspects preserved > sound origin, the Torus fields, the electromagnetic energies, and the equivalent and functioning of it in the inseparable anatomic/physical appearance: the Human with its 'Christ' oil [nowadays named CSF [Cerebral Spine Fluid]].

And of course the Great Year Cycle knowledge/awareness. Hidden but alive. Before only known for initiates, now starting to reach everybody.

In architecture, pyramids especially, with their cosmic mathematics, the sine wave reality of everything are clearly represented.

Showing how consciousness is all-embracing, in all aspects of life. That it can be developed, can be increased, awareness attained.

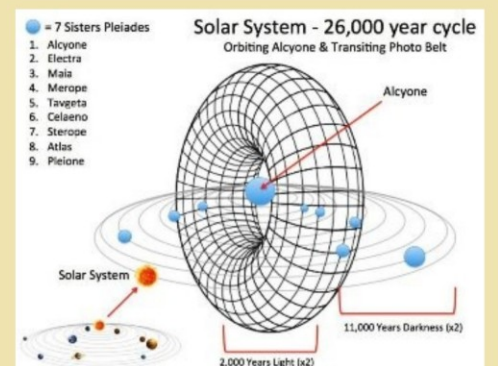

Transcending is all about higher resonating the inner fluids by means of adjusting to higher frequencies using behaviourism and nourishments by doing/being/becoming the knowledge. Atoms, our so called 'hard matter', are just 'standing wave patterns'. It's all energy!

Tarot was/is -still- one of those teaching/story systems, not to predict the future. Clear understanding is what predicts the future!

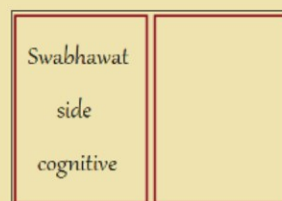

This tarot/book is my effort to help us wake up by showing our 6th sense a little of all that scattered amalgamated info and that it is al-ways interconnected and is always pointing into the same direction:

Becoming a full worthy space travelling species, joining the others and participating in the Great Work.

4. THE TRUMP CARDS - the major arcana-

Swabhawat side -LEFT pages or/and the cognitive side

All the symbols for the zodiac signs and planets, in their elemental colours, become automatic designated when you look at/in the Juul Wheel.

The mathematical base for all shapes in the Universe is the toroidal vortex.

In the Golden Egg I show the Swabhawat platonic based figures > its origin found in the torus shape.

The Hebrew, Runes and Ciphers are all extracted from the star tetrahedron which in its turn is deduced from the toroidal vortex

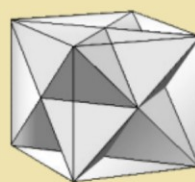

. . . from the star tetrahedron the 2 dimensional hexagon, which allows the 2 dimensional projected letters and ciphers.

In the middle of the card, at the base, just above the 'normal' numbers, I show the ciphers.

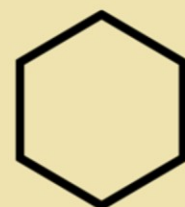

The colouring of the hexagon based letter figures is my personal interpretation, based on the colour scheme presented above.

TOROIDAL VORTEX

STAR TETRAHEDRON

HEXAGON

The Hebrew letters and their meaning speak for themselves.

The Runes, and their meaning shown, need some explanation. The meaning of the Rune letters, where they stand for is arbitrary.

However the Dutch language has a profound historical connection with the Germanic/Norse heritage.

When letters or words are pronounced the sounds in the language remind easily what the original meaning must have been/refer to.

For example: the letter UR, U, sounds like the Dutch word 'oer' what means 'primordial'.

Also it is referring to the Egyptian Goddess 'NUIT', who by bending over -does not invite you to fuck her ;-)- but looks figurative like the Rune letter, and shows therewith the expanse of the Cosmos > ergo she represents the primordial.

And finally 'NUIT' -in French- means 'NIGHT' which is the state of the primordial > dark as in referring to the unconscious state of it.

The fashion of comparing, of the above, is what I call "pre-Babylonian" reasoning. I use sight, sound & semantics as equals. I am 'juggling' with consciousness of differences' directly proportional between languages. In this there are no laws of nature holding you back; only your own -lack of- confusing! [con = with & to fuse!] Many people get upset when I do so > probably self protection.

I got to understand that by means of associations of multiple knowledge systems is how symbolism works.

Free association is a skill you have to master or it can drive you crazy. Without rules you can start wandering easily.

Sticking to books won't enlighten you! Trust yourself, Luke! :-) Are you the One who can do so, Nemo?

Anyway, I am not going to explain that for all the letters. Have a not educated guess yourself!

I added a meaning in the cards; there are many more to make. It's only an interpretation!

[see also Kerykeion Tarot table, page xiv and the cards]

For the Runes, numbers 4, 5, 6, 8, 10, 22, 23 and 24 I need to do some additional reasoning:

Rune Trinities I've been taught:

- male trinities are: WODAN, WILLIE and WÉ resemble in Dutch respectively: WAAR DAN? [= where], WILLEN [= wanting] and the word in German for having pain 'WEH' and in Dutch seen back in the word for birth pains: 'weeën'.

- female trinities are: FRIJA, FINDA and LYDA resemble in Dutch respectively: VRIJ & VRIJEN [= free and making love], VINDEN [= to find] and LIJDEN [= to suffer].

No. 4 - ⚊ 'Odal' or 'Os' rune: combined with 'FINDA', from 'to find' because the Ox = the Fool = the four elements are 'finding out'.

No. 5 - ⚊ 'Rit' rune: combined with WILLIE, from 'wanting/willing' because through *rit*uals we will implement.

No. 6 - ⚊ 'Ka' rune: combined with WODAN, from 'where then' because it's life force/soul searching. [check also Egyptian mythology]

No. 8 - ⚊ 'Not' rune: combined with LYDA, from 'to suffer', because in Dutch, 'nood' = distress, being in need.

No. 10 - ⚊ 'Ar' rune: combined with WÉ, from having pain through 'arbeid' = labour [in labor], physically and spiritually. Arbeit macht frei!

No. 22 - ⚊ 'Frija' -self created- rune: combined with -of course- FREE; because time with no end is free time :-)

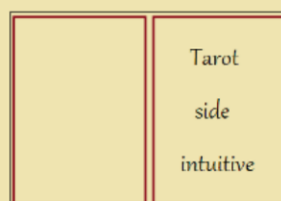

No. 23 - ⚊ 'Odin' -self created- rune: combined with 'GODIN' what means GODDESS; or God inside you. Garden of Odin/Eden. Cerebrum!

No. 24 - ⚊ 'Wralda' rune: combined with 'Ancient One', translated from Dutch precisely: Ancient Old One > Ur-Alda > the Omega > Aum Ego > ego all around, the everlasting echo. From "the Oera Linda Book".

5. THE TRUMP CARDS - the major arcana-

Tarot side -RIGHT pages or/and the intuitive side

It's ALL interconnected! One story!

This is my epiphany how to read the tarot in its reversed consecution:

- | | |
|------------------------|---|
| 1. ALPHA | = All-Phi [22/7 = 3,1415]; All-Phather = All father = all fire torus; Prima Causa |
| 2. FOOL | = you are/have become something; state of unawareness; not yet knowing, not realising, only instincts |
| 3. WORLD | = Ur-Alda [ancient old one]; home; reality; result of consciousness; this is what we have become |
| 4. JUDGEMENT | = your unique opinion about creation; there will never ever be another to experience me like you do |
| 5. SUN | = shows the result of its plasma spherical creative powers and its extensions: planets, plants, animals, etc. |
| 6. MOON | = the moon's magnetic tidal forces; physical, emotional & spiritual; temporal cultures, -systems, -species |
| 7. STAR | = Sine waved TORus field; throughout the universe it's a unified verse > electro-magnetism; all is atum |
| 8. TOWER | = all former information/identification is just an interpretation; it's all-lone>alone>all one |
| 9. DEVIL | = unaware living; energy/sine wave patterns are -consuming- you |
| 10. TEMPERANCE | = working with energies requires patience and devotion |
| 11. DEATH | = the proclaimed 'I' does not exist; the universe is you, not yours |
| 12. HANGED MAN | = the universe, who is you, cannot not be but through/with/by 'you' |
| 13. JUSTICE | = law of nature; karma/cause & effect/kismet/lot of species-, group-, family bloodlines; and therefore you |
| 14. WHEEL OF YOUR TUNE | = law of nurture; you is/are your unique qualities/skills/talents; there is only one -ever!- of you |
| 15. HERMIT | = search and thou will find; what do yóu want to know; what benefits and adds your uniqueness |
| 16. FORCE | = gentle triangulating perseverance; no quitting |
| 17. CHARIOT | = guiding/steering/adding the forces of nature, inside & out, alien & domestic, fiend & foe |
| 18. LOVERS | = law of the low-version; electro-magnetism; in this realm you make it work through harmonic balancing |
| 19. HIGH PRIEST | = upper-prior-is = everything, is you, yourself & thee and itself ;-) |
| 20. EMPEROR | = the established status quo; reality as it is; electro/male society side; takes by radiate |
| 21. EMPRESS | = the established status quo; reality as it is; magnetic/female society side; radiates to take |
| 22. HIGH PRIESTESS | = the highest first Christ/snake shows itself through direct truthful reflection; a clean mind is a joy forever |
| 23. MAGICIAN | = working with the ingredients of the universe |
| 24. OMEGA | = never ending story |

About the symbolism used in the Trump cards:

(It's too much to write all the symbolism I see. Let your own heart speak unbound!)

path card name

1. ALPHA engage
Nothing. \longleftrightarrow Everything.
The card is like a theatre. A stage like a -forbidden fruit- Mushroom, with a red with white dots roof.
Hexagon/Torus-field based and also the base for the Cabbalistic Tree of Live & the Flower of Live. \longrightarrow (also named the Seed of Life) The letters for Hebrew and Runes also derive from this basic form.
You recognize that crystals are formed that way, yes, everything in the Cosmos has this as basic design.
2. FOOL
conception
The faith of the Fool. The fall of the fool. Falling in love. The cycle of repetition is shown.
Under the floor we start with the Universe; then an electric bolt transports to a star system, continues to a solar system, then to earth, into DNA, into -magnetic- form > this time a human.
The total figure of the combined bolts, consciousness [white silhouette] and DNA is/form a pentagon > the 2 dimensional representation of the 5th platonic solid representing the 5th element Æther > the quintessence.
Guarding over is Anubis, the canine [dog] figured watcher over the underworld [subverse; other dimension; etc!], guiding the consciousness into the human body and not into the hole -the abyss- back, in the left, of the floor.
3. WORLD
ego-echo
The four Holy Saints, holding now the Swabhawat, situated around the World, our present house/home.
The feminine guides, and dances on and with the Beast.
Due to unaware consciousness, all living are in a constant struggle with the divine devised divided reality.
God, who uses 'sin' waves to keep it astray and thus expressed as a foundation for other dimensions.
4. JUDGEMENT
investigation
Inspector Clouseau -representing us-, on a green tiled floor [= water/mater] investigating the World/Earth/life.
Shown on a Egyptian DJED pillar, representing the spine of creation. God, obscured by angels, so he won't interfere with life's judgement. Love & War, resp. left & right, depicting all thinkable ultimate opposites, the way the Universe reveals [re-veil!] itself. The Universe wants to know -through us- if this creation is satisfactorily.
5. SUN
heritage
We are the result of Plasma Cosmology. The heritage is the Sun. Its heritage the solar system. All life, one source.
Torus fields within torus fields within torus fields etc. The symbolism of the Russian Matryoshka's.
A child -the Universe- emerging out of the sea -chaos- on the hippocampus, the seahorse -a brain part associated with learning- without saddle -unrestricted- rejoicing universal consciousness.
Depicted are the first three worlds -mineral, floral, and fauna- and today's earth > our heritage.
The two inserted windows remind to former worlds Lemuria & Atlantis.
The first 2 worlds, Polaria and Hyperborea, are hidden. I've heard 'Aryana' to be the 5th world title, today's Earth.
From Sanskrit Āryan > the Ariërs who came from Mount Ararat > Noah's Ark!
Aliens are here since the seeding of this planet. Beyond our comprehension at present.
6. MOON
tides
Not the Crab but her older form depicted: the mermaid. The west coast of North-America [picture is taken from Google maps] looks like/is a mermaid. Former Earths developmental forces given form in the planet its continental shape. It must therefore represent something very, véry deep and profound.
Digging in historical references I found that in Stanza II, verse 5 of the Stanza's of Dzyan -Anthropogenesis of the Secret Doctrine from Blavatsky- and in Greek mythology, references were made towards ancient creational forces.
KETO = Ceto [Greek] = the Decan* 'CETUS' -Seamons- in the Minor Arcana, 3 of earth. Now -under the floor= "behind bars" was/is the Goddess of the dangers of the sea [= unconsciousness]. Sometimes depicted as a crab.
[see also connection through/with descriptions about Mothers & Daughters in the minor arcana Court cards]
Left wall = red, electro, cognitive and right wall = blue, magnetism, intuitive < the dualism.
On the foreground, left, Cerberus, guarding and warning at the same time. The three headed dog, symbol to overcome the cognitive functions by knowing the law of trinity, which is consciousness of difference.
At the bottom of the right wall its foreground, bugs, and hanging above a spider, represent the creeping thoughts of our imagination > fears, illusions and other uncontrolled perceptions. What 'tides' you down!?
The wolf and the dog are again representation for those brain functions. The dog [= intuition] invites you to continue. The wolf [= cognitive], symbol for guarding the secrets -like the 'thinker' being the denier of reality- shows by howling to make a realised aware full cognitive/intuitive balanced decision. [see the 'wolf' also in cards Daughter Matrix & Father Helix]
The statue -shaped as a gate because every full moon is a zodiacal gateway to a new cycle- symbolises to pass after here more consciously then before. Left & right should be balanced by the third factor, namely the awakened you!
Hardly visible: on the far rock Aquarius is pouring out the living waters. (Saswitha - sas = living, witha = water)
A blood moon is when earth is between the sun and the moon, meaning: no help from other light than your own.
*) Decan = constellation > 36 Decani x 10° = 360 days/zodiac. See chapter 8 & 9.
7. STAR
uni-vers-al
Referring to the forces of creation > 'S' standing for the sine waves & 'TAR ~ TOR' for the torus field. [to store!]
The whole of creation is based on resonation/vibration, electro-magnetism/energy, frequencies and densities.
Standing waves in a multitude of patterns > called expression > ex -pressed > pushed out.
Storing stories/methods/memories. Torus fields flowing out of and into; from and to.
Left bottom corner, a tree as a brain or a brain as a tree. A torus shape on a stem. Same thing.
The Ibis bird, finding its food by sifting the mud from the bottom of the river [= spine fluid/Egyptian symbol associated with Thoth = Hermes or Mercury] arriving at the tree. Meaning a new age/cycle/knowledge is arriving.
The naked female, with one foot in the stream and the other on terra firma [= so/-id torus] and pouring the water of life over the elements depicting the effectuating interchanging cycles of matter with consciousness.
Innocent, because she symbolizes form effect. She/we/ the Star is/are only the means by which it happens.
Next to her, at the root/foot of the bush, the famous mushroom, the Red with White Dots, the forbidden fruit > another kind of gateway towards the hidden spectra beyond our daily perceiving capabilities.

The landscape, with left & right two hills and trinity mountains in the background, with the Great year cycle [see also chapter 3 > quintessence and card 9 of fire] depicted within the Milky way above.

The hole scene depicts the form of an Owl's head.

In the right circle of the Great Year cycle 6 symbols from various cultures. All these cultures refer to the Great Year cycle through these symbols by roughly an eight spilled wheel. In general they always refer to the zodiac.

Far right the little red planet with wings is Nemesis, the 12th planet. It is in a 3600 year orbit. Can't proof that, too much unclear information about it to distil a fair conclusion! (Read: Zecharia Sitchin: "The Twelfth Planet".)

8. TOWER
all-lone

Forget everything you think that you think that you know. It is all make belief. You are brainwashed. All Matrix. Besides, powers that be want you to only except their recipe. It is not your conception. Everything is a interpretation of concept. It is all borrowed, it is all-lone. Furthermore it is knowledge of past tense. Symbolized by: the air castle, the tree + 11 golden apples [= sephiroth], the 13 yod [= zodiac + Christ] and a sword [Excalibur!] stuck in the rock, are all symbols for system concepts.

[Hebrew alphabet > 'yod' = hand and 'zayin' = sword.]

The two thought clouds, left and right from the head, symbolize the brains programming to stick to the concepts of romance/falling in love [= copulating] and knowledge [= E=MC²], to preserve the addiction to the emotions created by sine/sin wave energies > to keep you locked up in the Tower, so to speak.

The figures are your ancestors, ancestral behaviourism -DNA imbedded legacy- and the unconscious addictions. Clean your brain. Create your own will.

9. DEVIL
greed-prudence

Working with energies is not so easy done, ask the fallen one[s]!

Addicted to the experience of the fruits of separation.

Before you know the energies are controlling you, and start directing you, and therefore consuming you!

As Oscar Wilde said: "The only thing I cannot resist, is temptation".

10. TEMPERANCE
gluttony-temperance

The picture shows God/Universe sitting on a star tetrahedron throne, the basic model of everything created.

The Universe continues to measure. 'Temperance' in Dutch = 'matigheid', what embraces also the meaning of 'to measure'. Dutch 'maat', which is in its turn associates with the name for the Egyptian Goddess Maät: concept of truth, stability, justice, and cosmic order. She is usually depicted with her wings wide spread, as if 'measuring'.

Measuring the angle does this angelic man, with one foot on land and the other in the sea, meaning mater & consciousness mirroring each other's qualities to become aware of possibilities. Mirror, mirror on the wall . . . ?

He carries water to the sea* by a 'female' jar and squanders blood on the land by a 'male' jar.

The costs of all that temptation. It measures what the measurer measures in continuance

So it is all about tempering your basic drifts.

*) "carrying water to the sea" is a Dutch expression

11. DEATH
sloth-charity

Once you realize by all those measurements it is not you measuring, but the Universe through you.

All the concepts are produced therefore by the Universe. You realize there is no you.

It is. The Universe is you; God is you.

Now you don't have an identification problem anymore (Ahum!).

The Universe is everything, you are everything. You died, yet you live as never before.

Death is no more.

12. HANGED MAN
pride-faith

It are the basic 4 elements depicted. The 5th element is the hanged man.

Infinity and the elements are the ingredients where the Universe is bound to work with. Maybe more, no less!

God is the Universe. The Universe is God. God is that hanged man!

Five elements and awareness -intentionally written- to work with opens an infinitude range of feasibilities.

Overwhelming possibilities of opportunities of creation.

Hanging on an almost breaking thread symbolizes the delicacy of the process of creating reality.

Duration is a double edged sword > the joy of experience and the wrath of failure.

13. JUSTICE
lust-justice

Main message is that you have to comply with the forces/laws of nature. Resistance is futile!

On the scales of the balance of Justice two books: left, the 24 symbols of the Swabhawat, and right, the 23 chromosomes > 24 when the choice of male or female is made. This in combination with the two swords, symbol of air and therefore thought management, points out the importance and responsibility of awareness of the possibilities and know how! Law of cause & effect in effect.

A blue/white tile floor; historically justice was spoken in halls with this colour tile configuration.

The left wall shows the Yggdrasil, the Norse Tree of Life with its nine worlds/dimensions/incubation time.

I am now convinced the 9 worlds of North Mythology are actually the 9 solar systems in the Golden Nebula > the Photon Belt > Greek - Phaëton > Python > snake Jörmungander, the Norse Ourouboros. [page vii, quintessence]

The right wall shows a deep space picture of a cloud nebula photographed by the Hubble telescope in -I think- 2013 and is named the 'Hand of God'. (In the Hindu religion culture they have ancient texts already talking about 'The Hand of Brahma' in the 'Heavens'.) I intended with this symbol the fact that whatever you do the Cosmos will always intervene, in other words: God will always put you back on track, . . . either way.

That's Odin, the Norse depiction of God sitting on his throne, keeping an eye on things!

Behind him more possible future awareness symbolized by a corridor flanked with pillars of creation/dimensions

In the back a door, a possible passage towards new horizons.

14. WHEEL OF
envy-hope

A vast dessert symbolizing several indications: your brain, your live, the grains of sand being representative for your possibilities, the lack of needed water [of life], and mutual other association you can make.
On top the everlasting, ever awaiting, ever guarding Sphinx. Guarding thee knowledge of the zodiac > hence the body of the Leo -tail- and the -head- Virgo. An Ourouboros in disguise, as you will. [see page xxiv]
Under the Sphinx Lady Fortuna looking out/in what you need karmically, therefore holding -your- cross/cruc.
The Ourouboros, configured with the Swabhawat figures, representing the Wheel of repetition, a law of nature.
The Taro/Rota/Tora, signified by their basic shape letter form: cross = T; triangle = A; circle+triangle = R and the circle is obviously the 'O'. Because it's all about -your- basics.
The silhouette of the head, with your knowledge -Tree- inside. Not much symbolism explaining there!
On the Tree sephirah, Malkuth/Kingdom, as well meant the mouth/lips, the vulva/Maria/Little Red Riding Hood is what makes you talk and what are you saying/pronouncing/reverberating/resonating = creating by talking?

15. HERMIT
denial-truth

Seek and thou shall find. Whatever. So it is for the creation itself. It is God investigating itself through you.
All the five elements, surely more, in their constant never ending elaborating search for possibilities that are, will be and will continue to remain to be duration.
The 4x4 elements of the Minor Arcana are symbolized by the sixteen human figures in and around the picture of the 'Library of Life', searching . . . [to 'chi' the 'sea' - to electrify the waters!]
The head figure, Obi Wan Kenobi, from the film Star Wars, is trusting the Force by holding the Plasma torch.
The circle from the plasma sphere itself, the cube/star tetrahedron and the triangle/prism, breaking the light, are representative for the three main figures which make the whole Swabhawat, the creating Law of Trinity.
The striking scroll on the table, the Swabhawat, reminds of the importance to first become aware of the functioning of consciousness of difference before investigating the rest of the Library [= in- & outside yourself].

16. FORCE
anger-fortitude

GUTTA CAVAT LAPIDEM non vi, sed saepe cadendo.
Translation: the drip cuts the rock, not trough power but by continuous falling.
Force, strength or fortitude, it is by perseverance not muscles. Wisdom and tactics are your allies.
It is a long breath thing. And you will only be able to do so if you have found what you really want.
In this card all learned in the previous cards/life are being needed to perform.
No try, do! > Be. > Experience. > Fail. > Rebound. > Continue. > Act!
The picture shows Christ's blood, being the earth's waters [= second double drip with the earth depicted in it] falling on the black cube, as a Crown, shaping creating forming matter mater mother.
The black cube is symbol for Saturn/Satan. Its insufficient awareness, of the functionality of earth its dimension, is being altered by the slowly and continuous influence of the dripping Christ force. Washing by means of perseverance. The Black Cube is also the Islamic Ka'bah. [and the word resembles Kaballah! A no brainer.]
The river is, among others but generally, time itself.
The background is divided in clear sky and clouded sky, + and -, bright and mystic. obvious and obscure.
Even in the most clouded environment light pierces through.
One flame enlightens a whole dark room. One can change the world.

17. CHARIOT
perception

The vast plains behind the chariot, where he came from, symbolizes history, . . . your story!
On the left & right wall Sphinxes, from which the left one is playing with Medusa's head. [not so clear to see]
The chariot is made of the star tetrahedron with 8 spilled wheels [reverence to the zodiac]. Sitting on it a naked [= nothing to hide] winged hooded [= controlled thought processing] you! Holding firmly the snakes in control.
The snakes symbolize the Christ oil [CSF], originated from the Claustrum in your brain, who became altered by the pineal gland into the magnetic melatonin, white like milk, and electric serotonin, golden like honey, forces, passing your seven chakras/glands/sins on the way back up the spine on their way to the cerebrum.
The eight horses symbolise the temptations which you need to guide over the middle path.
Take care, because you easily loose track and get submerged into the two quicksand sides of the narrow road.
Willy-nilly to learn to manage your will.

18. LOVERS
electro-magnetism

As the sub title shows it is all about the electromagnetic forces of the Cosmos. Plasma Cosmology is the new name.
The back wall shows a clay tablet scene of the Anunnaki from the Sumerian clay tablets.
It is the 'DNA machine' -later becomes the concept of the Tree of Live- used by the aliens who altered the DNA of us humanoids. Presuming the translations and interpretations of the Sumerian clay tablets by Zecharia Sitchin are correct. It would explain the 223 strange genes only found in humans. Not in plants, nor animals.
It would also clarify the missing link in paleoanthropology.
What struck me is in the Norse mythology the 'Irmensul' looks exactly like a part of/in the Anunnaki DNA tree.
'Irmensul' in Dutch sounds like "honour my soul". I am sure it is the origin of the Kerykeion/Caduceus staff.
The two snakes obviously represent the DNA's double helix. In addition, 'to keep in honour', is what the Dutch word 'loven' means and the origin for the word 'lovers'! 'Belief' has the same roots.
The side walls and the figure on the floor show symbioses of different kinds, all confirming the electromagnetic nature of everything.
On the floor itself the deformed figure of conception indicates not all blending have their wished for results.
Only through organised collaborative works, ordained together, become original organised organisms!
The Angel, coming through a triangular hole in the roof, being from another dimension, is in itself the representation of the active electromagnetic forces which are of course surpassing levels of dimensions.
The wings of the Angel and the roof its angles form a double cross, a resemblance with the octahedron in the Minor Arcana, 3 of water, development of mankind series and a seal of Saturn. Also the double cross resembles the helix of the DNA structure. Now you know how we Humanoids have been double crossed! It's all connected.

19. HIGH PRIEST
re-cogni-tion

In the hall a giant Christ, thee Teacher, pointing at you that you are next.
Just on the left of him is a small one of you. A dark figure because you do not radiate light yet, you only absorb it.
In the hall 3 platonic figures revering to the Law of Trinity which the Swabhawat explains. The real prior est!
The 3 keys? Truth, Trinity and Trial. My in the spur of the moment alliterated intuitive association! Many to make.
The red/blue Yin/Yang/Tao sphere on top of the cube reminds of the electromagnetic essence of the Universe.
In the back and on the ceiling 7 portals of dimension. You can consider the senses/chakra's/glands as dimensions.
The 8th portal is the space where you are, reader. Yes you! Because it is the dimension where 'Will' took form.
All portals are shown by a trumpeting angel. The symbolism, meant by me, is the fact that whoever explains you whatever, it will always only be the angle of comprehension of the one -angel- explaining you. [angel = angle!]
You are uniquely fine tuned. All measuring you do with your senses are unique angles of you observing reality.
Question remains: how are you going to trumpet your uniqueness towards the rest? This tarot is my effort.

20. EMPEROR
cerebellum

A draconian serpentian reptilian alien with a hermaphroditical humanoid body. All forms represented.
The system keeps us all going and at the same time imprisons us all. It is a fait accompli.
Earth, left wall, and the Moon, right wall, represent consciousness and unconsciousness. Or vice versa???
Both are ruled by the system Lords > the Elite > Rome > the banks > the conglomerates > the education systems.
It's black and white, good and evil, God and Satan. Its dualistic. Cerebellum in a nut shell.
Since this system does not willingly teach you about the trinity of everything, therefore you, as an individual, can only move through. Now it should be you being the wise one, knowing how to work with all this.
To use it such a way that the system will/has to change itself from the inside out.
Now you are aware that when you surely change yourself, the system has no choice but to mirror you and therefore is changed. One can change the world. [see 16. Force]
My idea how to give the Emperor what is of the Emperor. ;-)
The Ram, classically used in the tarot, refers to the hippocampus. —————→
The Ram as astrological sign is way overdue. Age of Pisces is past. Time of Aquarius!
The waters of Aquarius = passing of our Solar system through the 'Photon Belt/the Golden Nebula'.
Now the cerebral spine fluid waters of Aquarius are flowing; now the Hippo swims!
Al true rulers know this . . . should.

21. EMPRESS
cerebrum

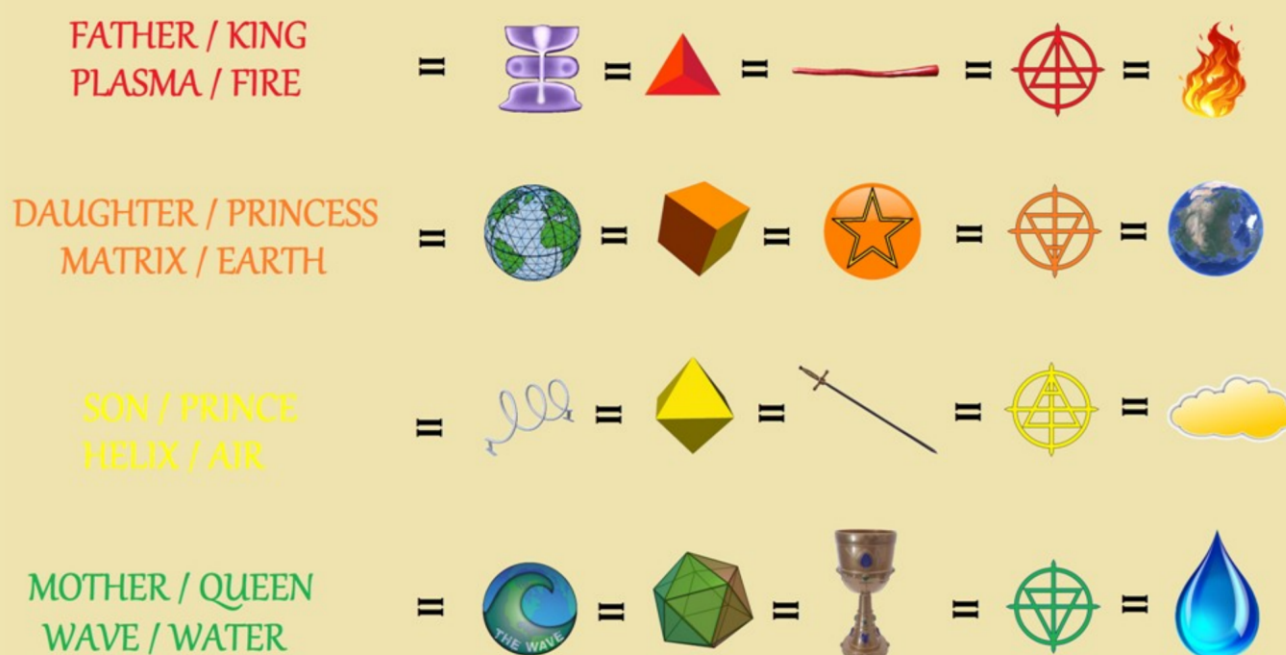

The only difference with the Emperor is that this is the Feminine side of the Empire.
Between God and Satan stands the Female; who is sometimes one, then the other.
Where the Emperor rules the cognitive aspects, the Empress rules the intuitive creational ones.
It is Mother Earth/Æther personified. Her cerebrum handles æther into earth and vice versa.
She is crowned with the twelve stars, showing she represents the former cycle of achievement.
The sign for Venus, on the right, with scenery of birth>growth>death repetition depicted.
The way consciousness becomes an updated -life- form. Resurrected. How Æther becomes Earth.
Ruling with a Mercurial rod her matrix. [standing on her right side on the corner of the bench]
Golden honey-like yellow corn in front of her representing fertility and abundance.
The mountains like breasts show fruitfulness, the land of milk and honey.
Which is a reference to the pineal gland who alters the cerebral spine fluid [CSF = Christ = 'oil' in Greek].
It is secreted monthly from the Sancta Claustum by your brain, into two chemicals: melatonin -white like milk- and serotonin -golden like honey- [see also 17: Chariot]. How Earth becomes Æther.
The whole story of Christ with his 33 years, the story of the zodiac with the 36 Decani [33 vertebrae + 3 days*] and cycle[s] with the planets and stars [see Minor Arcana right page explanation] and the 33 degrees of the Masonic rites are all about this anatomical/astronomical fact; it shows the unity/equality of it all. It is the reminder for how to "heave" the fluids, to run back to the brain so they activate brain cells, in the cerebrum = heaven, within us.
To honey-honour our Mother/Father = Sarah/Abraham = Cere/brum. Brain halves Torus fields > energies!
*see the book: 'Zodiac and the salts of salvation' from writers George W. Carey and Inez Eudora Perry

22. HIGH PRIESTESS test-i-many

First Snake - prior tes. [Hebrew 9th letter Tes or Teth,  = snake; Juul Wheel: same spill quadrant > Temperance]
A serene clean room, like your inner state should be.
The floor symbolizes white 'Kether' -crown creative forces- imbedded in orange 'Yesod' -foundation- . [names of the sephiroth on the 'Otz Chiim, Tree of Life', see page xxii]
The Priestess naked, because there is nothing to hide. All is open, undisclosed, interpretations to explore.
Aspects of the Priestess are: the temple cat -master of meditation- , playing with a rubik cube = symbol for matter & Saturn, while keeping an eye on: the mouse -master in radiation- and: the bird -master in flight- , who is twittering away. [See rubik cube also in 'Daughter Plasma']
She sits in front of the symbol of creation: the Tree of Life. The Sephiroth are all stuffed with pommes granites; the multitude of seeds representing the result of the numerous interpretations possible.
Here not two pillars -Boaz & Jachin- but three, > trinity is due, not dualism! I wonder what that name is?
The electro-magnetic expressed ones -the ones living in identification = dualism- represented by the red & blue snakes, on top of the two pillars. The same two snakes -black & white there- as seen in the Chariot no. 17.
She is not 'holding' a scroll of the 'TAROT' but of the 'SWABHAWAT', which will rotate the 3rd millennium.
The Golden Crescent Moon in front of the High Priestess symbolizes impregnation by waves of growing. The tides. Bringing Waves of awareness, brought by the Living Waters > Aquarius > Maitreya. [see also Son of Waves]
Her head is, exactly in front of 'Malkuth' [= Kingdom] on the Tree of Life. She, therewith, is representing the source where the brain sections of the Emperor [= cerebellum] and the Empress [= cerebrum] find their info.
The High Priestess is third factor, the Holy Ghost, the initiator, the fair maiden > Virgo > the 1st snake!
The desired of all nations who feeds the baby boy spiritually, the promised Seed of the woman!!!! [more page xxiv]
Crowned with the symbol of Isis [= Ishtar = Eastern; Mother of Toth = Hermes], with the Blood Moon in between.
The Moon is exactly situated where behind her 'Yesod' [= foundation] is situated on the Tree of Life.
The Moon represents the potential but also the partly unconscious part of this still to become Universe.
The sea behind the Tree is that symbol for the untouched aspect of the Universe.
The Universe is a never ending book to be written. One long ongoing never ending testimony to test many.

23. MAGICIAN
great maker

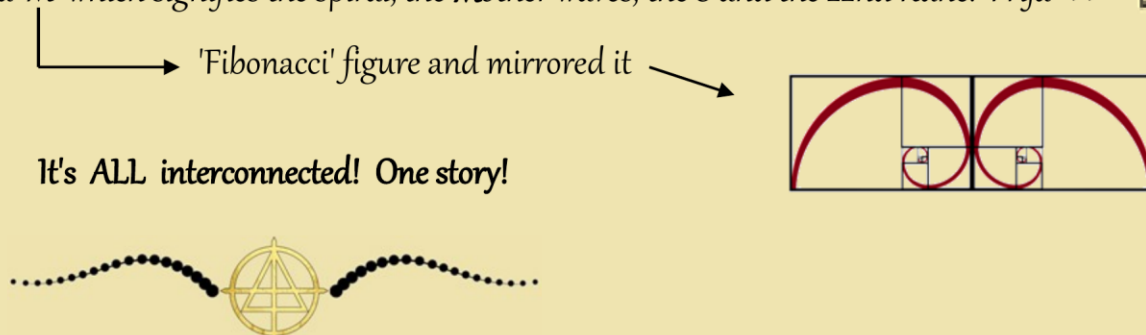

The Magician in silhouette, so you can easily identify yourself with, because it is/should be you. ;-)
On the left wall some study papers > picture of an atom, picture of the platonic figures and a table of the elements.
Also the head of a Unicorn, symbol of unity, with the symbol of eternity & repetition beneath > the lemniscates.
The oil [Christ!] lamp as symbol for the eternal flame/light, hence the 5th element.
[1st mineral = oil; 2nd flora = ethereal oils; 3rd fauna = blood; 4th humanoids = CSF cerebral spine fluid <> Christ]
The Magician body gesture shows two understandings:
1st) : that he is the 'aleph' [Hebrew א] -the fool at the beginning of a cycle- but now as a 5th element > aware!
2nd): he points out that the symbol of the 'highest' light -the oil lamp- is represented by all the different symbols on the table.
I show the 4 material forces, each depicted 5 times with different objects of different disciplines.
The 5th element is all the elements together in there alchemical workings > hence One story, hence the Human being, ergo the Magician himself > you !:

On the right wall the KERYKEION framed as if it is a diploma. A certificate, a 008 - license to create! :-)
The standing clock shows a dial in a spiral form, since time itself is a vortex.
The red & white flowers, in the floor tiles as well the roof, reminds of the Magic Mushroom; the forbidden fruit.
Through which you can, using the [un]natural DMT, experience a glimpse of the possibilities of higher brain functions; to wake up, so to say. To look through the looking glass! Always used for initiation purposes.
Taste, but do not eat the fruit of the root of the Tree of Knowledge > meaning: do not even take the observed knowledge as an unchangeable fact. Knowledge, written or seen, is not a static fact, it grows as well.
That is a static fact! That's what makes the Universe change and expand > makes the Tree grow bigger & fatter!
Complementary the traditional red & white flowers are now supplemented by a third flower to symbolize the trinity of e-v-e-r-y thing!
The third flower being purple, the combination of red and blue > generally the symbols -also in this tarot- for the electromagnetic forces. All of them placed in a jar which is black & white = duality, the way the all-embracing reality presents itself.
Off course the garden through the open gate, behind the Magician, is the Garden of Eden > the Holy Grail > the cup -your head- named cerebrum: Heaven.

24. OMEGA
aèéiòóum (aum)

Everything. \longleftrightarrow Nothing.
Because we generally all forgot trinity, we also forgot that emptiness/silence is still a signal of expression.
And therefore an indication, a meaning, a message.
Not doing is also doing. Not hearing is hearing nothing.
The symbol of emptiness, as I understand it, has, of course, a threefold indication.
One of when the work is done, . . . and one just before you start a new task. The rest is the difference!
Like sound is separated by two states of silence or silence distinguishes itself by two tones!
You can read/see the word 'OMEGA' better as 'AUM EGO'. Me all over the "peeping" place! ;-)
The 'I am'.
The 'GOD' me, the 'ALLAH' me, the 'BOEDDHA' me, the 'ME' me, Mini Me!. The 'Self' with a Capital.
The subtitle in the card shows the true spelling of the word 'AUM'. [The 7+1 chakras]
Also known as "Om mani padme hum" meaning: "The Jewel is in the Lotus".
It is "AÈÉIÒÓU" and a 'M' which signifies the spiral, the Mother waves, the 8 and the 22nd Rune: 'Frija' >>

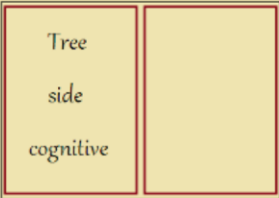

Next page shows you all the symbolism used in the MAJOR ARCANA in a table:

ALL MINOR ARCANA CARD EDGES ARE IN THE COLOUR OF THEIR ELEMENT

6. THE COURT CARDS -the minor arcana- the 4 x 4 cards

Tree side -LEFT pages or/and the cognitive side

I chose the 11th sephirah of the Kaballistic Tree of Life, 'DAATH/GNOSIS' [see page xxii], to show the sub element within the main element. Each of the Court Members of one element shows, at the bottom, the world of creation it represents > so 4x the same depiction per element. Around the Tree you find the symbols for the same element of different disciplines. Only the Court Member changes, they are linked to, and change with, the in 'Gnosis' depicted -colour- element. Written text is more obscure than the actual card! A picture tells you more than a 1000 words!

Kerykeion name: element: symbol: classic tarot: court member/sign: elemental: common card games: world of creation:

PLASMA	FIRE	FLAME	KING / WANDS	SALAMANDER	DIAMANDS	MINERAL
MATRIX	EARTH	PLANET	PRINCESS / PENTACLES	GNOMES	CLUBS	FLORAL
HELIX	AIR	CLOUD	PRINCE / SWORDS	ELFS	SPADES	FAUNA
WAVE	WATER	DRIP	QUEEN / CUPS	NYMPHS	HEARTS	HUMAN

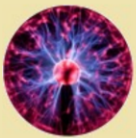

7. THE COURT CARDS -the minor arcana- the 4 x 4 cards

Kerykeion side -RIGHT pages or/and the intuitive side

The KERYKEION staff, on its top, shows 'my' symbol of the element within the main element in question, being similar to and changing with a Court Member on the Tree side -left side in the book > other side on the cards- :

All 4 cards show, at the foreground, its main element, with the element of the element behind it. [for example: Father Plasma or fire of fire shows: main = flames in front of sub-element = sun in back; Daughter Plasma or earth of fire shows: main = flames in front of sub-element = earth in back.] A few cards have a little diversion -artistic freedom- by pictorial expression but in all you recognize the sequencing of the system used.

Then each card carries a platonic symbol of its element but in the colour of the main element. You'll see. :-)

A diagram of all symbolic pictograms used is shown on page xxi.

About the symbolism used in the Court cards:

(It's too much to write all the symbolism. Roam your own possibilities!)

Reading about one court member means an aspect of all the other[s]; aspects of One reality!

FATHER PLASMA:

fire of fire

about: radiation

It is the head representation of Fire, that's why you find the Holy Apostle of Fire here:

Saint Marcus with the Holy Animal for Fire : the Lion.

Holding not the Bible anymore but the Swabhawat, the Bible for the third millennium.

Standing on the fire of all physical fires: the sun.

Left of the Kerykeion staff the, now more or less general excepted, the symbol for Plasma:

For fire the Dragon as Ourouboros. Also, in Chinese astrology the Dragon is the Leo.

A lightning bolt, top left, because it looks good! ;-)

A RED tetrahedron.

DAUGHTER PLASMA:

earth of fire

about: progression

The Witch, the Witta, the Hex [hexa = six], the Earth of Fire principle on a broom, Electric currents weaving Matrix Waves.

Hindu > witha = water; German > wissen = to know; Dutch > witten = making white, 'weten' = knowing; English > 'witty' = smart.

From the bottom up counted the 6th chakra is Pineal/Pituitary gland, the inner eye. Counted from the top down: the 6th is the SVĀDHISTĀNA, the sex chakra > sex-six-hexa! Hence the daughter's sexy outfit. Moreover the pituitary gland looks like/resembles the phallus with two balls!

As above so below. So within, so without.

Earth of Fire will burn with too much Air > knowledge = matrix/earth > without proper quintessence = fire/five -the word looks like 'fire' - .

Witta into witha [= water] is required. You need Saswitha's teaching > the Swabhawat: consciousness of difference.

The rising female out of the flames is the mat[t]er out of the burning chaoticism. The Witch learns by burning herself over and over again . . . !

The Mother Plasma forces inherited, the life force energy, the kundalini, the chi emerging out of fundamentals, a female Phoenix alike.

She already holds the Kerykeion rod, but she's not aware yet of the kundalini/snake's wave -weaving- patterns and their influences.

She is wild and has to learn to wield. She is the earthly aspect of fire: eruptive! The Volcano I see as the earthly aspect of fire. [see page xxi]

A pentagram with a pentagram matrix/web within is a hint for solutions. Penta + Penta equals ten! Think Tree of Knowledge > knowing helps.

The Tree is a spiritual 'map' to meander the snake's wave/weaving patterns into useful quintessence. Good or bad!

You can consider the Tree of Knowledge as being a tool of the 5th element. The Major Arcana is the 5th element, it runs through everything.

It's all about and in a state of becoming conscious/aware/realistic/comprehensive. Don't we all learn constantly?!

The black cat is the Temple cat. Playing with the 'sex' sided Rubik cube also means playing with the sexual fire/kundalini > the Kerykeion rod!

Playing with the Tree of Knowledge -holding the Kerykeion rod- gives you all those pommes granites seeds! [see no. 22, High Priestess]

The cat in flames is a tempered version of the Lion, it signifies a warning not to squander and inattentive go about with energies.

It's all connected in simultaneosity. Maybe this daughter will become a High Priestess!

A RED cube.

SON PLASMA:

air of fire

about: fertilization

It is THOR [torus field]. The son of ODIN, riding his chariot [with 4 wheels/elements] drawn by two [duality] Goats through the air.

It are 'Tooth-cracker' and 'Tooth-gnasher'. Swaying 'Mjölnir' -the hammer- he causes the thunder and [plasma] lightning.

Goat/Ram/Lamb > all symbols for the rising Christ oil > Christ is related with the snake = symbol for sine wave patterns > ergo torus fields!

Thor! The sine waves are dualistic, hence two goats. The words God & goat are related, So God is pulling the car by means of duality/difference.

The chariot resemblance indicates: also the son has to learn to wield his powers, learning to work with the duality, steering the goats.

The depiction of the spiralling torus field, the basic organic model of the Universe, reminds you how the Milky way [our star system] looks like.

How the planet its electromagnetic field looks like, how your chakra looks like, why an apple looks like it does and how insects and UFO's are able to hover! [Unidentified Flying Object]. By resonance of torus fields! Thor! That's why he is Air born, . . . literally!

The Egyptian symbol, the Scarab, is among other things, symbol for the remembrance of the torus essentialism of everything.

Interesting is the fact that the scarab creates a torus field around itself by the proper resonance of its wings beat. Therefore it hovers instead of flying; it steers by changing its magnetic poles relative to the earth's ones . . . Aliens once learned from nature to make their UFO's hover!

When you actively "think" [= air symbolism] you alter the radiant wave patterns of consciousness and by so doing definitively influence others.

A fire tornado emerges from the flames. A helix of fire spiralling up the Kerykeion rod > indicating the Christ oil rising in your spine column.

A RED octahedron.

MOTHER PLASMA:

water of fire

about: formation

It is the primordial Mother. We all come from the sea/she! Her fiery hair -life's fire lived evolution- in beautiful waves.

It is KETO! (Ceto) [see Moon card], as well as Venus [see Mother Matrix card]. Mother's fiery passions, what more do you want?!

Mother of the Gorgon's in one story, Venus putting Mars to sleep in another. Mothers dualistic nature brought us the 3 daughters in the story of the Gorgon's as well as of the 3 Graces being both sides of the creational forces in the three created worlds. [see also Daughter Waves]

The fearful daughters and the gracious ones are the two sides of the same medal. You need them both to create a world/medal/tarot!

I see many seemingly different and contradicting symbolic stories from different cultures, but all with the same intentions, all related and complementing each other. Like dualistic forces do in the Universe. Yin & Yang in Tao. Father & Mother & child > they all need each other.

Those Ancients were masters in multi information telling; all apparently different conceptions yet all referring to the same universal actions.

The 3 dimensional lemniscates depiction: which is an idea how our universe/doubleverse/multiverse can look like if you consistently draw the logical line of creational shaping. The shaped lemniscates are a result of the behaviourism of fiery radiated electromagnetic Mother-waves.

The spider -only looks like!- is an electromagnetic pattern displayed. When I found this I finally understood why spiders look like they do!

>> NOTE: 4 days later I find a beautiful model of a spider on the street; probably 'lost' by a child. Or Lot is the culprit! ;-) maybe the butler! <<

A RED icosahedron.

FATHER MATRIX:

fire of earth

about: solidification

Pan, Bacchus, Lucifer, the Devil, Zwarte Piet from Sinterklaas [Black Peter from Dutch Santa Claus], it's all the same meaning by different depiction. Symbols for unawareness. Where the waves of tempting energies have taken over. Drown in addiction. Earthbound. That's why he howls towards the Universe. Also because time after time Earth -his work- gets destroyed every $\pm 12,068$ years. We are all addicted one way or the other. It's inevitable. Even the good doer by doing good. There is no escape out of the Universe. The Universe created you. WHY???

Above the fox a picture of the whole Universe. The whole Universe to consider as matter/dust/earth.

The result of aware consciousness moulded into material by means of persistent proper use of addictions!

Result of/for/from the original fire.

In numerology the Fox is 666. The fox is a very clever one. So is Lucifer, so is your thinker. Aliens too!

The thinker is the killer of reality, yet it prevents unreality. A quote out of Saswitha's book.

The pyramid is, for me, the fiery symbol of earth; it is earth made fire [or vice versa!]

An ORANGE tetrahedron.

DAUGHTER MATRIX:

earth of earth

about: purification

It is the head representation of Earth, that's why you find the Holy Apostle of Earth here:

Saint Lucas with the Holy Animal for Earth : the Bull.

Holding not the Bible anymore but the Swabhawat, the Bible for the third millennium.

A naked [= nothing to hide] female in yoga position [= awareness] is jumping the Bull > a Minoan culture ritual.

Bull > Taurus > Torus > planet Earth is a Torus field > the magnetic fields waves/shape! Daughter = female = waves.

In my opinion you can draw a direct line with 'giving the Emperor what is the Emperor's'. No more bullshitting!

These days the Spanish culture and their Bull fights are based on the same acknowledgement of the Zodiac sequences.

And of course the Ancients concealing scientific evidence of the torus fields in all kinds of rituals.

Daughter Matrix this time is no one less than a mature Little Red Riding Hood.

Instead of holding her basket I gave her a snake [= kundalini] to handle. Something she did not yet have in her basket.

Here, the daughter learns about and how to go about and handle the snake[s] = sine waves > Christ. If you are not aware about them how on earth are you going to recognize those wriggling unmanaged energies, when uncontrolled will destroy precious build Earth?

She is standing on the leaves of former consciousness and tries to rise out of it, symbolised by high heels.

She has her hands full because at the same time she tries to prevent the wolf [= symbol for the dark side > her Pan daddy!] from treading the TAHU tree its fruit, -the forbidden fruit, the famous Red with White dots mushroom-, the 'un'natural DMT [Dimethyltryptamine].

A warning with many meanings: 1st: not to destroy it, and 2nd: to be careful with it: e.g. earth, your body, your sanity. Many more to make.

Druids, Shamans, Temple rituals, they all used DMT containing 'flora fruits' to initiate the apprentice. Me too! ;-)

Now you realize why the Pope, Santa Claus and Gnomes wear red and white!

The planet Earth depicted with a matrix grid, meaning: everything is inseparable connected.

Consciousness is one, one is the world, one organism > the whole Universe is one organism!

Unfortunately, in these days, your sixth sense, called brain, is only formed by education in a dualistic state of performing and therefore nominating, seeing and reverberating only separation.

We have an identification problem. The word 'Individual' comes from Latin 'individua' meaning indivisible!

It eludes most to experience the simultaneosity of the parts; the Oneness of it. The now.

An ORANGE cube.

SON MATRIX:

air of earth

about: comprehension

It is Ikaros. Wanting to much, flying to high. It is the arrogance of the pretended know how. Don't we all!

Like the daughter he has to learn to wield all that consciousness. Not all consciousness processes will work out in matter as desired.

The ultimate Helix of matter, I would say, is DNA [Deoxyribonucleic acid].

Shown as a tornado descending on earth; actually delivered by Aliens, hence the UFO [Unidentified Flying Object].

The raindrops indicate fruitful results, although not always according to the initial plan. [referring to the 18th card: 'Lovers']

God had a different development plan for us until alien races (other sons & daughters of creation) interfered.

The Falcon is the bird associated with the Egyptian Son of Osiris & Isis > Toth; who in its turn is associated with Hermes [Greek; from Zeus & Maia] and later in Roman culture the God of Commerce: Mercury. Here some reasoning: from Greek to Roman = Jupiter & Gaia > Gaia & Zeus > Gaiazeus = Jesus = Christ > the messenger through your body > ergo mercury = quicksilver > the desired silver/shekels.

And not wasting it like Judas when he threw it away!

Fly up, falcon! Transcend! Adaptive efficiency therefore, that's how you want your comprehension to work.

An ORANGE octahedron [build up of spirals! An example for 3D printer possibilities. I liked it. And adequate for my purpose].

MOTHER MATRIX:

water of earth

about: repetition [this one is a hard card to explain; indulge me. ;-)]

Oneness cannot know itself but by division and than by measuring the difference[s]. That's how self becomes aware of Self.

Quote from the book 'Swabhawat': "Universe becoming conscious by means of opposites". Electro & magnetism; male & female; aware & unaware; positive & negative; heaven & hell; etc. etc. Duality - du-al- ity = do/two all it. Or: dua all it - the two do it all.

Maia > Ma Jah > Mother God! Is the Mother not One? The potential of all possibilities? What matters! Mat[t]er, the shell for consciousness?!

So the Mother is as one as the consciousness that created it. in Simultaneous duality is Oneness.

Venus, represented on earth by the female [fire-male]. Venus or 'The "mourning" light' or Lucifer! Keeping the awareness of light alive by means of separation so there is a difference to experience and therefore upholds the awareness of light. Lucifer the bearer of light?!!!

Isn't associated with hell unawareness?! [symbolism = the eel fish in the sea; 'shell' = snake-hell; the unconscious, hellish, state of being].

The Universe works with conscious implemented unawareness. Out of the sea, the 'SHELL', symbol for -initially- not being able to be aware.

Consciousness that works through layers to build itself up. Unaware full to a certain degree, than ongoing to a degree of conscious awareness.

Humans, I see as, the evolutionary tipping point; 3,5 [the half of 7 chakras] worlds/dimensions before aware consciousness kicks in!

[See next card: the 'Egg of Creation' part].

First plants crawled onto dry land and created a shell/barque to keep the water [sea] in = their cortex layer. [helix>matrix>cortex!]

Then the animals followed who did repeat the same process, now the brain cortex > repeating the knowledge of nature.

Then humans with their cerebrum, the cerebral cortex. All repeating processes. The Mother her repeating matrixes by means of birth.

[re=again, Peat=pit=Peter of Sinterklaas is black > in the dark, ergo meaning rebirth is being unconscious again > learning by repetition].

Learned to make to have skin, to keep the sea in! That's is why we are 'seedlings' made by 'semen' and why we are 'seeing'!!!
 Again a lemniscates combined with the Mother, in the dualistic depiction of two snakes, now showing the unavoidable cycle of life and death.
 The stork as deliverer of earth's product, the crown of creation: the Homo Sapiens: representing aware conscious life > the 4th World, [see also Daughter Wave]
 This is one of the cards with a little different depiction of the elemental hierarchy: there are two times an earthly representation in the front and one of water behind > Water of Earth. The wave patterns of the Australian earth/dessert, shaped by the wind over a long period of time, are so beautiful that I just had to ad them somehow > Mother Matrix = Waves of Earth.
 An ORANGE icosahedron.

FATHER HELIX:

fire of air

about: transmutation

The Father representing mastering, all the aspects known, this time of, the air qualities; the thoughts > awareness > consciousness. It is Norse Germanic mythology. The combination of symbols within the right depiction make the head look like that of Odin. You can regard him as the Master Druid. The Yggdrasil [= the Norse Tree of Life; the World Ash] clearly seen with the snake, wolf, eagle and ravens incorporated. Yggdrasil spoken in Dutch sounds like 'Ik draag Ziel' meaning 'I carry Soul'. 'Ziel' in German language means 'target/goal'. The Norse 'Irmisul' -a figure strait from the Sumerian DNA tree clay scrolls- sounds in Dutch like: "Eer mijn Ziel" = honour my soul! So, it is the Tree of Life carrying the mastered results of life > the result of Father's healing helical elixirs working!
 In the middle the same wolf[s] as in Justice and Daughter Matrix; meaning the Father is in harmonic contemplation with his dark/both side[s]. At the top middle the Eagle [= ultimate control of consciousness = wisdom] flanked with Ravens. The Ravens are 'Hugin' & 'Munin', respectively meaning knowledge & memory, helping harmonising wisdom > the Eagle. Equivalent on the Kaballistic Tree of Life, the 'Otz Chiim', is the upper trinity > 'Däath', 'Binah' and 'Chokmah' > gnosis, know and wisdom. Ravens therefore are the spiritual guides & guards. [see also Son Helix] Knowledge is something else then knowing, mind you!!!
 Sun and moon as the ears indicating listening to conscious and unconscious interactions. Constantly monitoring inner and outer treatises! On the left side of the Kerykeion staff: air forces [= turmoil consciousness] by its electromagnetic properties create friction which come down in the form of bolts; three of them [= conscious use of trinity]. They ignite the flame that hatches the Egg of Creation impregnated by Father's healing helical elixirs! [aware cemented semen of course ;-)]
 The snake spirals three and a half times around the Egg [nucleosome] and transforms and re-creates > becomes the resurrected Phoenix.
 Snake = the living creating aware consciousness of difference, thee Swabhawat, the Self-Existing; electromagnetism itself;
 Egg = symbol of the Cosmos > 4 elements = yolk, egg white, egg fleece and the outer egg-shell;
 3,5 times = 33 is the number of vertebrae, 33 years of Christ, 33 degrees of initiation of the freemasons, took me 33 years to learn all this, 3,5/3,3 worlds before aware consciousness kicks in. The egg with the snake coiled 3.5 times around it is a very old symbol, the Chinese & Hindu knew it;
 Phoenix = dies and is reborn out of his own ashes [= ash/ask tree = Yggdrasil!] assumptions & educated guesses about reality die because of miscalculations, yet you recreate assumptions out of the former + new found knowledge.
 This process repeats over & over & ...

The whole combination of combined symbols suggest the:
 creating through practiced conscious awareness of consciousness of difference.
 A YELLOW tetrahedron.

The nucleosome is the carrier of DNA info/experience!

DAUGHTER HELIX:

earth of air

about: distribution

The Daughter reflects all consciousness [= snake] of everybody [= unicorn] in simultaneity. It is a 'through time & space' event. She is like a funnel where the most adequate found knowhow through mimicry instantaneously is proclaimed. She is, man!!!
 She dances the beast [see no. 3, WORLD], she rides the Unicorn, she is one with the snake. [That's why she has a hard time recognizing it]
 She is man's mirror. [mirror, mirror on the wall . . .] The daughter now knows the snakes. [read Mother Helix, she is the snakes!]
 The Gryphon guards the atmosphere -air-, or so to say, guards the æthereal spiritual realm: the Holy Ghost.
 The Gryphon is a legendary creature with the body, tail, and back legs of a lion; the head and wings of an eagle; and an eagle's talons as its front feet. In antiquity it was a symbol of divine power and a guardian of the divine.
 A YELLOW cube.

SON HELIX:

air of air

about: cultivation

It is the head representation of Air, that's why you find the Holy Apostle of Air here:
 Saint Mathew with the Holy Animal for Air : the Human

Holding not the Bible anymore but the Swabhawat, the Bible for the third millennium.
 Who else then Hermes himself being the Son of air.

Swift delivering the message of the knowledge of consciousness of difference.

Atreyu, the dog/dragon from the film 'The Never Ending Story', is the perfect symbol for several references and interpretations.

-1st) It's a dog: loyal, trust worthy; he resembles two Decani of Gemini, Canis Minor & Canis Major [see 9 & 10 of earth, Kerykeion side];

In Chinese astrology the Dog sits where we have Aquarius, the Son of Man. We are entering the time of Aquarius, he is the messenger;

-2nd) He flies = moving in/with/through the realm of consciousness; and he represents what life is all about: 'a never ending story'.

-3rd) Then his name: it sounds suspiciously much like 'Maitreya', the messiah for the Aquarius age, the successor of Jesus. [see also Son Wave]

The tornado I consider to be the air of air symbol. I couldn't resist the temptation of combining the spiralling tale of Atreyu with the spiralling flock of birds flawlessly surpassing into the spiralling tornado. :-)

The Raven is a spirit guide, meaning: 'Using your own feathers for flying with your own wings' and 'not flying on the wind of tomorrow'.

Only one Raven, 'Munin' = memory, because the proper 'knowledge' to know wisdom are yet to be found -a never ending story-, hence the meaning of the cloud obscuring the Kerykeion rod. Being the new born and carrying/bringing the message does not automatically mean you fathom what the message compasses. Every Son has to become a Hermit for some time sooner or later.

A YELLOW octahedron.

MOTHER HELIX:

water of air

about: accumulation

The Mother of mimicking must be Medusa, I so reasoned. Those snakes on her head are all that fiery devouring reflected collective consciousness. Overwhelmed by her sight -of hell[ix]- you petrify. The Mother/matter principal -as in being the materialisation of thought- containing therefore all Grand Thoughts, beautiful & horrific; generous and devouring; conscious & unconscious. [see also Mother Matrix] And an embodiment of Mother Plasma. So we have: air, fuel [matter] and flame. Heavy stuff. No wonder it's all trembling > -sin/sine- waves of air! Therefore in this card a 'double' depiction of the main element, this time air, because there exists literally visually waves of air [= water of air] in the form of clouds. Those who Daughter Plasma rides on her broom.

You see them depicted on the horizon of the sea. [also diagram page xxi]

This time a more obscure lemniscates > the symbol for musical notes is a upright lemniscates in my eyes.

Sounds are waves -mother- of/in/with/through/by air. It is also the means through which consciousness becomes solid > breath > thought pronounced = word = confirmation [= con=with, firm=form] = earth/matter like = world > God spoke . . . oops! ;-)

Maçonnerie [the Freemasons] is made of the French word 'soner' meaning 'ringing' > producing sound frequency waves! [see Son Plasma]

With the levitating properties of sound the Masonic builders where able to move those immense megalithic stone blocks to build the Pyramids and other structures found around the world.

plasma helix waves matrix
Radiation and sound waves make solidification > creational forces ;-)

The elephant -the mothers are the head of the group!- shown because they are remarkable sound emitters & detectors, and famous for their renowned memory. What else are those snakes on her head then > air quality of mem > mom > mama > mother = water > sea. You see?! :-)

Elephants feel sound send through the ground [!] up to 7 miles/10 km! That is how groups of elephants knows each other's position.

Whales, dolphins and orcas do it also, although through water whales do it up to 550 miles/800 km!

A YELLOW icosahedron.

FATHER WAVE:

fire of water

about: creating

Who else than Neptune [= Roman] or Poseidon [= Greek] as the Father Wave.

The Trident is of course the symbol for the awareness of the law of trinity, the consciousness of difference. Everything with three actually!

The hippocampus, seahorse, is the same as in the Major Arcana 5th card, the 'Sun', and shown with the explanation of the Emperor.

The hippocampus plays a major part in storing information in the brain. Water into Mater, so to speak.

Symbolically used for the hippocampus is the "sea goat" [sea God!], represented by Capricorn [see also picture with the Emperor].

The zodiac sign at the darkest time of the year, yet the moment when the Light/Christ-oil starts rising again towards the summer, the fire wave -father wave- rising again. In Chinese astrology it is the Rooster, who by its crows announces the morrow!

Equivalent with creation rising out of the murky waters/dark ages towards its bloom of expression when God's Kingdom is again established.

The shell is of course the same as previous meant in Mother Matrix; working with layers. Chakra's can be seen as layers for Christ oil to pass!

>> NOTE: The word 'Capricorn' or 'Caparisons' and 'comparison' are of course related. Emerging/rising/transcending you do through means of comparing, to be able to choose your steps well. Comparing is literally nothing else but consciousness of difference in action.

That is the trinity; that is Christ forces at work in a nut shell! ;-)<<

Yes. Father is surfing [serving!] the Waves; riding [writing] the Waves!

-----"The Pelican is a bird that lives in Egypt by itself on the river Nile, from where it takes its name; for it is called "Canopos" in Egyptian. It is said that she kills her own offspring, and mourns them for three days; then she wounds herself and revives her children by the sprinkling of her blood". — Isidore of Seville, Etymologies, Book 12, 7:26. ----- [look it up: 'canopic jars' in Egypt, from the tombs. It makes sense!]

Made me compare it this way: we are in the first 3.5 worlds unconscious [see Mother Matrix], then by offering the 4 elements -your physical state- transcending our/your awareness to the point we can step into the Cosmic realms of dimensions.

It is also in direct parallel with the Christ oil references [all of them] or the light re-emerging out of winter. The symbolic equivalents are numerous. [Really, you should read this book: 'Zodiac and the salts of salvation' from writers George W. Carey and Inez Eudora Perry; and while you're at it: read from the same two writers: 'God-man, the word made flesh'. Also listen to Santos Bonacci on YouTube, he explains syncretism and astrotheology thoroughly. You will be flabbergasted! Things we should have learned at school!!!]

We are in the element of water, which I named 'Wave', for obvious reason, and referring to the fire aspect of it [= father > fire of water],

I therefore associated the Wave with the electromagnetic sine wave forces. That led me to the workings of a magnet with its radiant properties, which then led me to the form/shape resemblance with 'Nut' or 'Nuit', the Egyptian Goddess.

Both depicted therefore. [see for more explanation of 'NUIT' chapter 4 on page vii]

And when you look at the complete picture it now looks like if 'Nuit' is like a roof over the pelican -a canopy over a canopos- protecting the pelican and hence 'creation'. Symbolism I did not anticipate when creating the card, yet obvious once made.

A GREEN tetrahedron.

DAUGHTER WAVE:

earth of water

about: expressing

The Daughter signifies the coming of ages of the planet. Meaning the creation of the 4th World.

Expressing it by means of her extensions: we, the humanoids, the shell[ter!] giving living identities!

Ergo: she symbolises the becoming of consciousness > the snake [= Christ] "helixing" upwards its properties integrated resulting in creation.

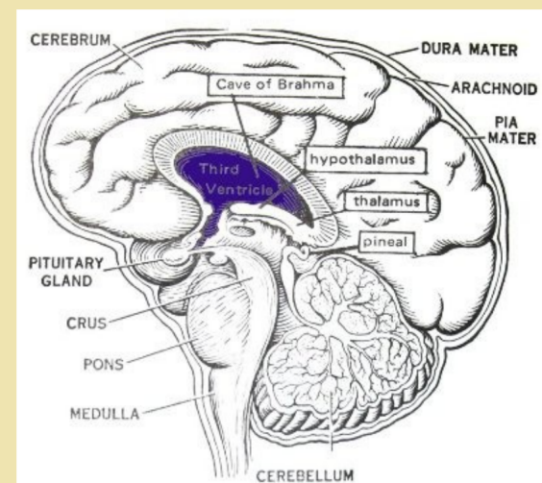

She, the young one, is representative of the fourth world > the world in progress of the Humans.

It seems sometimes not logical that our state of being is still part of thee plan. It looks like we have fallen back, but it is just to take a run. Two steps forward, one step back, unavoidable!

The Cosmic consciousness has not deserted the plan to make us heavenly creatures; breed from and meant for heaven.

In the Dutch language a human is called 'MENS', which is descended from the Sanskrit word for "thought" or "heavenly bread": 'MANAS'. And "heavenly bread/breed" means RATIO > consciousness.

[rato>rota>torah>tarot] 'Thought handlers'; especially when the cerebrum is boosted by returned Christ oil, after laying dormant/'dead' for three days in the Cave of Brahman.

The 3 days Jesus the Christ lays dead in the cave and is resurrected!
That is why I placed her in the sea; she -we- is still emerging/resurrecting from it, still learning.
While in the background you see the already risen representatives of the already established three worlds [= mineral, floral & fauna], the three Graces > the three Mothers Plasma, Matrix and Helix.
This whole picture is in a direct line with the previous card, Father Wave > mentioning comparisons!
The octopus is no less than 'The Kraken'. Its symbolic meaning has a direct link with KETO (Ceto), Mother of the Gorgones [see Mother Plasma].
Has everything to do with 'Little Red Riding Hood' and later with the last card Mother Wave.
It is all about sexuality and how the creating forces persuade the deepest conscious processes to take form into the world of creational powers!!!
How the Christ-oil causes shelled seed -Argos Navis and the Sea men = semen- into life > see especially the 4th of Fire and actually all of the Minor Arcana, Kerykeion side, for the whole sequence. All about analogy with anatomy. Cycles. Repetition. Expression. Becoming . . .
This is meant by the 'so above so below'; 'so within so without; micro & macro cosmos. The Universe is a self re-creating entity.
The frog is the same one as in the fairy tale: it is the ugly frog apparently, but once kissed [frogs also disperses 'toxics' with consciousness expanding properties] becomes a beautiful Prince. Meaning once you get a grasp on symbols, you start seeing that all the stories of all the religions, fairy tales, mythologies and even modern science is nothing else than trying to pass along the knowledge -about creative forces- to the next generations for them to use, time after time. The Princess becoming aware that the Kingdom/Prince [frog] is not so ugly after all.
When you start seeing that it has been told through numerous cultures in numerous ways: religions, myths, fairytales, all arts, stories, books, sciences, architecture, theatre, astronomy, astrology, etcetera, etcetera, etcetera . . . , you have understood where 'symbolism' is all about.
And it is BEAUTIFUL! No wonder we use a name as 'GOD' to express our awe. And like God, it's everywhere.
Like in Father Matrix a depiction of the 'material' Universe, here in Daughter Wave, a depiction of the 'waved' Universe.
The cube shows the three dimensional Universe with the electromagnetic patterns as also organised in our brain so. [see Hanged Man]
A GREEN cube.

SON WAVE:

air of water

about: satiation

It is not Jesus, it is Maitreya, the successor of Jesus, the Messiah for the Aquarius Age.
You can see that by the way he holds his hands, called a Mudra. A bit different than Jesus does/did/had.
His halo is an DNA double helix in a pentagram configuration. Meaning the DNA alterations brought for the becoming of the human race.
It looks like the figure I used for the Kerykeion staff Court member symbol for Son [Helix], shown in a 3D laser print in wood, only this 'Helix' figure is hexagon based. It's worth mentioning that aliens have made this figure in a crop circle in England!
He sits on a Golden Rock, no need to explain that; symbolism we all know!
The Winged Snake meaning: spreading out awareness of consciousness, the Water of Life, evidentially, the Swabhawat.
Depictions of the Winged Snakes were used to refer to the flying [= UFO's] aliens in history. Maitreya is an envoy of our brother aliens.
The flying boat has connections with the 'ARGO NAVIS' out of the constellations. Delivering the DNA alterations. It is also an Arc of Noah!
It is therefore the resemblance of the new age seed transcending into a new kind of shell.
[see also just above: Daughter Wave, and below: chapter 9, The bible zodiac harmony: Through the Zodiac with Christ.]
The dolphins, -very conscious aware, highly telepathic- are diving into the spiral of water [= possibilities of the potential consciousness].
The vortex is a good representation, I think, of Helix in water. [see diagram next page]
Supported with the fact that the dolphins jump out of the water into the air: they help weaving the waves. They whip air into water, ergo (sound) waves into reality. Furthermore the fact that dolphins are here assisting the Son, the helpers send forth by Neptune, Father Wave.
A GREEN octahedron.

MOTHER WAVE:

water of water

about: satisfaction

It is the head representation of Water, that's why you find the Holy Apostle of Water here:
Saint John with the Holy Animal for Water : the Eagle.

Holding not the Bible anymore but the Swabhawat, the Bible for the third millennium.
Saint John is looking up towards the -zodiac- constellations, probably in awe of thee inerasable message.
[see below: the bible zodiac harmony; 'Through the Zodiac with Christ', complete Minor Arcana, Kerykeion side; and of course the Juul Wheel itself > page xxx].

Mother Wave is here the symbol for the electromagnetic wave diversity in and throughout the Universe/Doubleverse/Multiverse/Subverse/Perverse, and what more verses there are!!!
Of course is thee Mother, no one else than the Holy Mary [= 'Mary' related to 'mare' and that means sea].
It is the sea of electromagnetism; it's the sea you get submerged into [Pisces age!]; it's the sea of flesh[fish]/incarnation; it's the sea of knowledge; it's the sea of assumptions; it's the sea of emotions [sex]; it's the sea of addiction[s]. She is temptation given shape. Don't drown!
Mary, the Virgin -zodiac!- , is also often named the daughter of 'Sin' in Babylonian texts!
It is what are the 'Sine Waves'. Committing sin is nothing else than being unaware how the -sin- waves of energy have you in their grip.
Creation is all a form of addiction. The Cosmos just knows how to use them such a way that it creates something what is wished for.
That's why we all judge; you let the Cosmos know how you experience creation. [see Major Arcana, card no. 4, 'Judgement']
I chose this picture for Mother especially for the reverence towards the sexual aspect, the recreation force, and the obvious association with Daughter Matrix > 'Little Red Riding Hood'. Once you understand the full story of the Christ story and the zodiac it becomes quite clear.
[Santos Bonacci with its www.universaltruthschool.com and Cullen Smith with his www.cullensmithsvp.wixsite.com/liftingtheveil are very elaborate in explaining these subjects.]
I consider sexuality to be the greatest force of all the temptations and so necessary for it keeps creation going. Go forth and multiply!
Last but not least again a lemniscates now of two dragons holding the red/blue Yin/Yang/Tao symbol. A cross-reference towards the draconian origins of the aliens mentioned in the bible as being the fallen angels and running through our blood in the form of DNA. [223 alien genes!]
It's all about the electromagnetic waves, the sine waves, torus fields > Fathor > Sisthor > Brothor > Mothor > uthorus > torso > etcethorus!
Explaining the symbol of the giant wave dominating the whole card has also to do with the fact "Aquarius pours out the waters" meaning: our Solar System passing through the Plasma Belt or Golden Nebula! ;-)
Also the shape resembles Maitreya its mudra!
And to add this similarity: all this knowledge makes it obvious why females are physically so waved! ;-)
A GREEN icosahedron.

It's ALL interconnected! One story!

ALL MINOR ARCANA CARD EDGES ARE IN THE COLOUR OF THEIR ELEMENT

8. THE DECAN CARDS -the minor arcana- Ace + 9 cards

Tree side -LEFT pages or/and the cognitive side

The Cabbalistic Tree: [for basic designation see diagram below]

- highlighted by the second bigger sized circles the element concerned according the colour scheme I use
- the alchemical symbol for the current element in the concerned sephirah [depending the number of the card]

- Ace = 1 = foundation
- 2 = kingdom
- 3 = splendor
- etc.

I think like so: the hole tree is a representation of the torus field, where at the top and bottom there is an inward movement, represented by the: 11th Gnosis = Däath and the: 1st Foundation = Yesod. Also, logically, you first have a plan -gnosis- and then you build a foundation -yesod- and then the rest!

- I climb a tree, I don't descend into it! :-)

Under the Tree:

Tree/left side:
corresponding with the
sephirah in process:

Tree/right side:
evolutionary development corresponding with the sephirah in process:

- FIRE red edged cards > planets
- EARTH orange edged cards > 9 Muses + Apollo
- AIR yellow edged cards > knowledge skills
- WATER green edged cards > platonic solids

[inspiration from Mantegna Tarot]

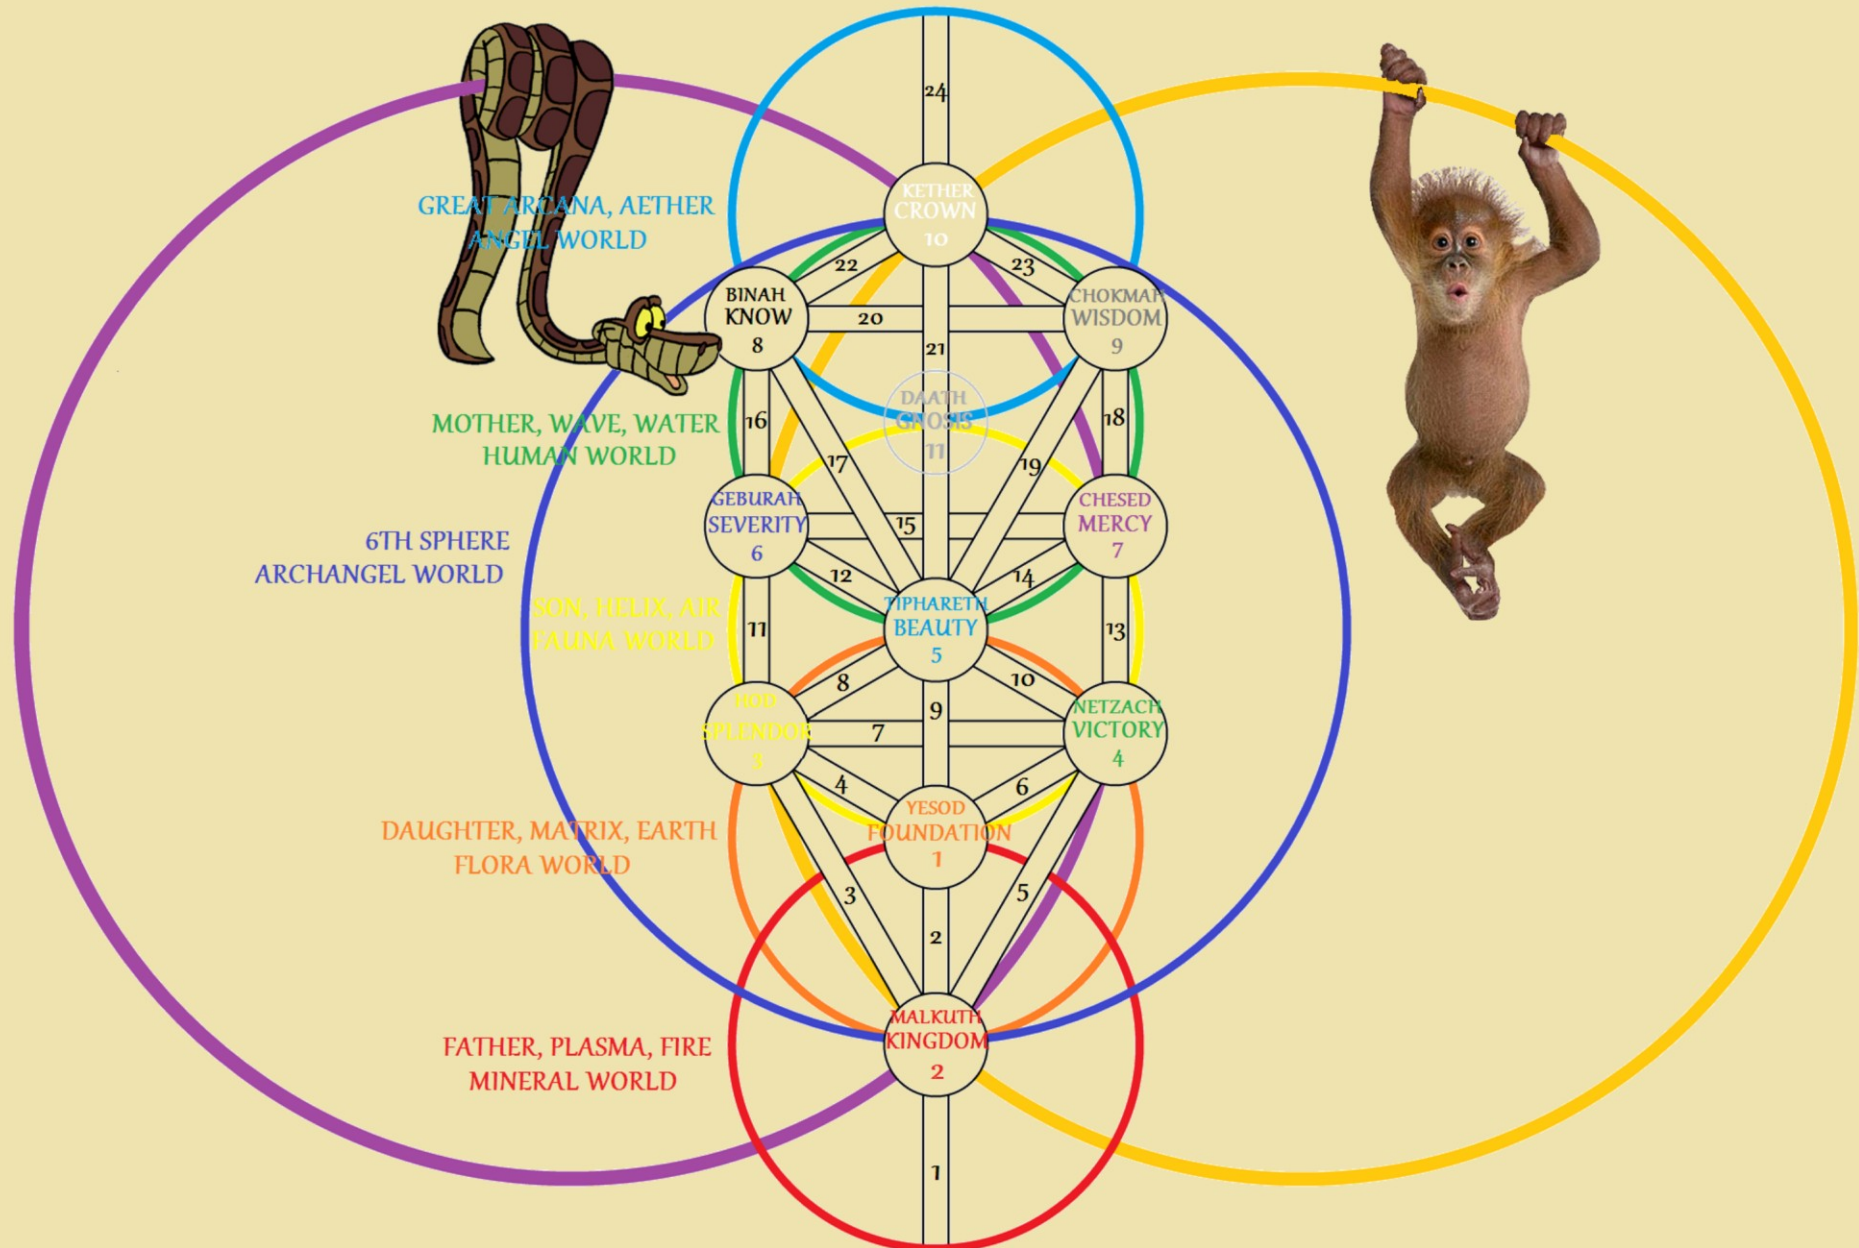

- of the mineral world
- of the floral world
- of the fauna world
- of the humanoid world

(just an indication, mind you!)

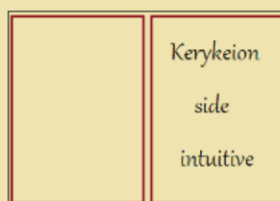

OTZ CHIIM / TREE OF LIFE

ALL MINOR ARCANA CARD EDGES ARE IN THE COLOUR OF THEIR ELEMENT

9. THE DECAN CARDS -the minor arcana- Ace + 9 cards

Kerykeion side -RIGHT pages or/and the intuitive side

Bible zodiac harmony: Through the Zodiac with Christ.

Basics: >>> Each Minor Arcana element covers 3 zodiac signs, shown all 3 together, with each its corresponding planet, by the Aces.
>>> Each zodiac sign accompanied with 3 decans, divided over 3 sephiroth → - 2 to 4 - 5 to 7 and 8 to 10.

I try to make clear that the ancient Bible refers to the anatomical reality of the force of life, in Christianity named CHRIST. Known in numerous cultures before us: Chinese > CHI, Hinduism > KUNDALINI, Egyptian > KA and Maya > K'UH, to name a few. In the Greek priest schools/temples -like you go these days to universities- a certain attained degree was named 'Christ'. You reached the status of 'Christ' when fully initiated; when you had become High Priest. As normal then as these days the title 'Professor'!

The main periods of the zodiac are:	> momentarily	daily*)	=	2 x 12 hours	[hours comes from Horus!]
[. . . and of the Christ oil cycle!]	> personal	monthly	=	29.5 days	[menstruation for females]
	> collectively	yearly	=	365 days	[Christmas]
	> precession of the equinoxes	Great year)	=	26.000 years	[12-21-2012 > 21 dec. 2012 according to the Maya's reckoning]

*) see Juul poster/foldout plate

) see also chapter 3 > quintessence & 9th card of fire > left page > zodiac crossing.

All the Aces show :

> The title of the Saint and the Holy Animal concerning the element and the name of the season concerned.

> Each element represented by the Holy Animal from the concerning corner of the Earth on top of the Kerykeion staff.

> show the 3 Zodiac signs [read them from right to left <<< !] represented with their planet concerned.

Saint Marcus - Leo - fire - summer - from - 22nd of June until 22nd of September

Saint Lucas - Taurus - earth - spring - from - 21st of March until 21st of June

Saint Mathew - Human - air - winter - from - 22nd of December until 20th of March

Saint John - Eagle - water - autumn - from - 23rd of September until 21st of December

The Eagle is used because of the aspects to overcome in Scorpio, those are often represented by 7 different symbols in the form of animals; the Highest is actually the Phoenix.

All the numbered cards show : -2 to 10-

> At the top the name of the Zodiac sign under which the translation of the name. Chapter title, followed by the scripture[s] concerning.

> Each sign occupies 3 cards combined with the -for each card different- Decan concerned, who has its own scriptures reference.

> Each element represented by the Holy Animal from the concerning corner of the Earth on top of the Kerykeion staff.

> On the left side of the Kerykeion staff you find a picture of the Zodiac sign. Under it: only the first combo planet and zodiac sign, for the first 2.5 days designated to the Decan over which it rules the given period in the card under the rod > under the 'boat', are shown.

> Under the Kerykeion rod the 4 zodiac signs at the disposal of the Decan. So 4 x 2.5 day a combo zodiac sign & planet rule with the Decan in the period shown under the boat. On the Juul Wheel it is easy to see which signs and planet go hand in hand.

[Read the zodiac signs, in the 'boat', from right to left <<< !]

> On the right side of the Kerykeion staff, a picture of the concerning constellation named 'Decan'.

Directly under it: the name of the Decan or constellation. Under the name the scripture[s] concerning.

About the astrotheological story found in the Christian Holy Scriptures:

> Most is found in and copied from E.W. Bullinger's 1893 book, "The Witness of the Stars, from Kregel Publications, a 1981 copy.

> To show that it is not a stand alone in the Christian Scriptures, equals are shown out off different languages/Holy scriptures in the extended version. I copied them as I found them on the internet. :-/

10. EPILOGUE

I cannot emphasize enough we, collectively as a species, have to learn how our consciousness works.
Saswitha, Jan Rijks, wrote the book "Swabhawat, de korte weg tot wijsheid" scientifically. Verifiable for everyone willing to understand.
Unfortunately not yet translated into English I won't stop you!
The Law of Trinity is the best extraction ever conducted in history about the workings of the Universe. A statement I dare to take.
To remind everybody ones again: this Tarot fabrication was/is an exercise to show the power of thought processing.
Our mind/consciousness/6th sense will always make a "comprehensive understanding" of & in any circumstance.
The 'THINKER' can and will 'glue' whatever it wants. True or false. I suppose to survive.
It is clear to me now that I used the Tarot, mainly, as a medium to elaborate and explain my ideas about reality.
I am though, very well aware that 99% of what I elaborate is based upon, for me, unverifiable information.
I know that history, as we've been told, is not the truth. So I can only make an educated guess about the true nature of past events.
To be more precise, when you do a correct interpretation, there is past nor future. Only an ever-changing now.
The Kerykeion Tarot is a reflection of my comprehension about the knowledge I collected on this planet.
No knowledge system is without its nonuniformity. The Universe itself is one big antithesis.
I like to remind you that symbolism is multi interpretable, that's exactly the charm for the investigating mind.
So there is no true or wrong. It is not up for debate.
All you do is exchanging insights > hopefully given with steps of associations, clarifications and references.
There is so much more to tell about the symbolism used, but that would take a whole Encyclopaedia Symbolica Galactica! ;-)
Furthermore symbolism is something you build through the years. It is really an insight thing; you do it with your 3rd eye, your 6th sense.
Took me 33 years to become sure enough to claim that I start to understand it.
And you are never done. It is a never ending story. I learn every day.
In my eyes to be able to do so are the riches.
It makes me know. . . . and understand Oneness, . . . myself.
I am.

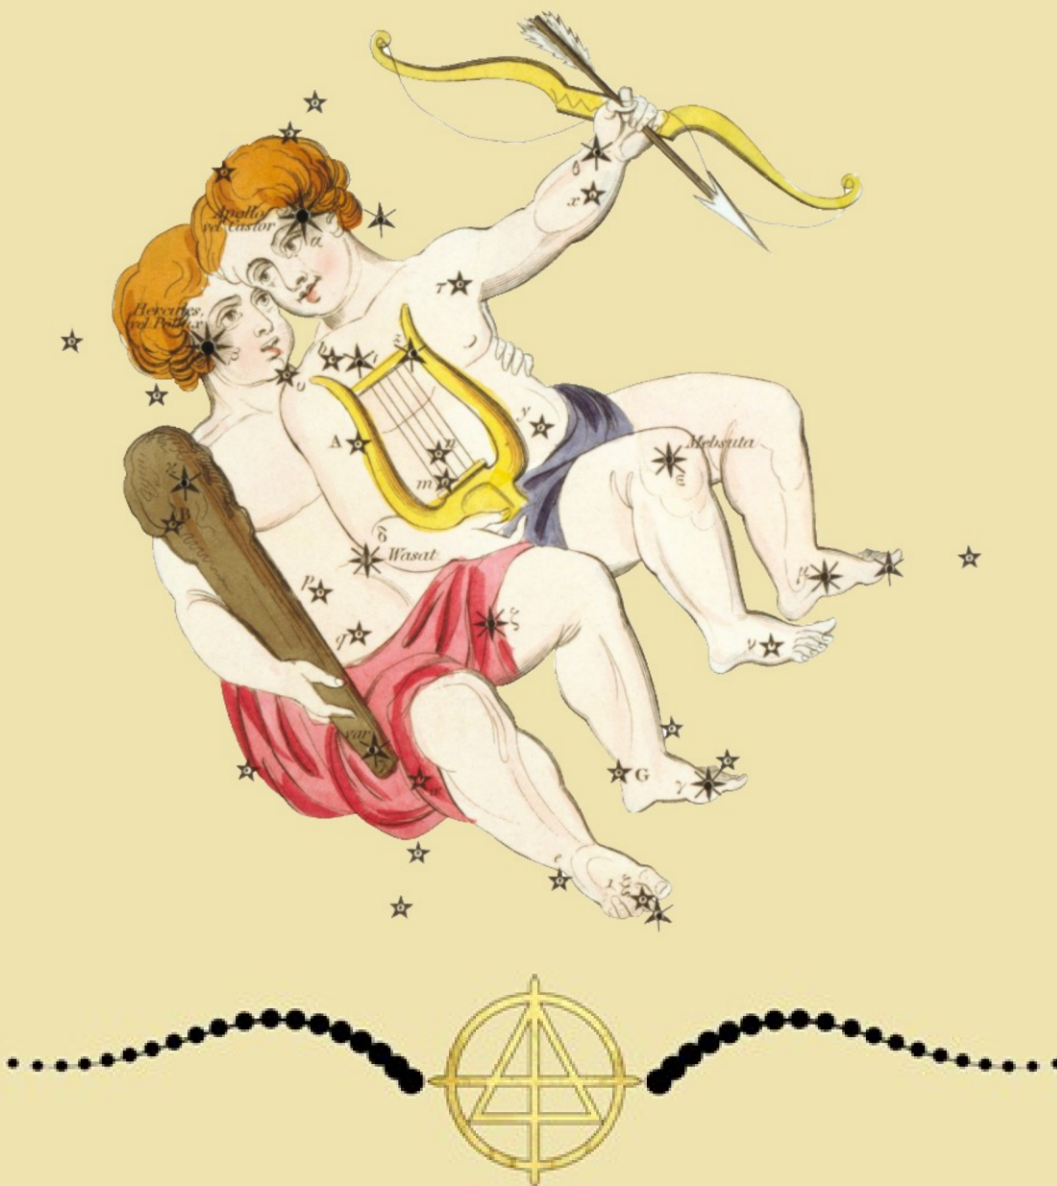

You can consider this whole book/tarot as complete nonsense. Absolutely true.
